

BY: Senator PARKER

HONORING Diane Adlam upon the occasion of her designation as recipient of the PASEsetter Award by the Partnership for After School Education on February 28, 2023

WHEREAS, It is the custom of this Legislative Body to recognize that the quality and character of life in the communities across New York State are reflective of the concerned and dedicated efforts of those individuals who would devote themselves to the welfare of the community and its citizenry; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to honor Diane Adlam upon the occasion of her designation as recipient of the PASEsetter Award by the Partnership for After School Education at its 30th Anniversary PASEsetter Awards Benefit on Tuesday, February 28, 2023, at Cipriani, New York, New York; and

WHEREAS, Diane Adlam is receiving this prestigious award for her role as an afterschool educator whose commitment, energy and creativity has had an indelible impact on the children and youth of New York City; and

WHEREAS, PASE is a child-focused organization that promotes and supports quality afterschool programs, particularly those serving young people from underserved communities; Diane Adlam truly exemplifies this vital organization's mission of delivering consistent, high-quality programming to youth and increases their capacity to meet the needs of their communities; and

WHEREAS, For over three decades, Diane Adlam has strived to give kids the bright light of hope through her work in the fields of social work and youth development; and

WHEREAS, As a teenager, Diane Adlam felt at home at the Madison Square Boys and Girls Club; after graduating from high school, she began working there and rose through the ranks, eventually becoming the Program Director; throughout her tenure, she served as a dedicated mentor and role model to hundreds of kids; and

WHEREAS, After 15 years at the Boys and Girls Club, Diane Adlam worked as Community Liaison for New York State Senator Kevin S. Parker and served on the ACS Governing Board of Childcare and Head Start; and

WHEREAS, In 2009, Diane Adlam established her own charity organization named Giving Tree-Jamaica, which promotes and provides resources for early childhood education in impoverished areas of Jamaica; and

WHEREAS, Diane Adlam currently serves as the Program Director for

Woodside House's Cornerstone Community Center in Queens, where she has been employed for the past 8 years; and

WHEREAS, Throughout her career in the service of youth development thus far, Diane Adlam has proven time and time again that she will go above and beyond for the children and families that she serves; after getting her license in food preparation, she cooks dinner for an average of 80 kids per day at the Woodside House Cornerstone Community Center; and

WHEREAS, During the COVID-19 pandemic, Diane Adlam fought to keep the Center open as a safe place for children to learn on days when they could not be in their physical classrooms, providing technology, supervision, and guidance; she went door to door to bring program supplies and academic workbooks to families to ensure that their children could continue to learn remotely; and

WHEREAS, Diane Adlam earned her bachelor's degree in Child Psychology from Brooklyn College, a master's degree in Clinical Social Work from Fordham University, and a Certificate of Non-Profit Management from Columbia; and

WHEREAS, In addition to the thousands of children she has helped nurture, Diane Adlam is the loving and proud mother of two sons, and the soon-to-be mother of adopted siblings; and

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body that when individuals of such noble aims and accomplishments are brought to our attention, they should be celebrated and recognized by all the citizens of the great State of New York; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That this Legislative Body pause in its deliberations to honor Diane Adlam upon the occasion of her designation as recipient of the PASEsetter Award by the Partnership for After School Education; and be it further

RESOLVED, That a copy of this Resolution, suitably engrossed, be transmitted to Diane Adlam.