BY: M. of A. Slater

COMMEMORATING the 100th Anniversary of the Yorktown Grange Fair

WHEREAS, It is the sense of this Legislative Body to recognize those organizations and businesses of this great Empire State who make significant contributions to their communities; and

WHEREAS, Attendant to such concern, and in full accord with its long-standing traditions, this Legislative Body is justly proud to commemorate the 100th Anniversary of the Yorktown Grange Fair, hosted by Yorktown Grange No. 862 on the weekend of September 6-8, 2024, at the Yorktown Fairgrounds; and

WHEREAS, Fairs and festivals empower communities to attract new visitors while capitalizing on local commercial and cultural value; and

WHEREAS, The Yorktown Grange Fair has drastically progressed from its humble beginning, burgeoning from the agriculture and farming industry, with the inaugural fair being held on October 19, 1923, at the site of the first Grange Hall in Yorktown; and

WHEREAS, The Yorktown Grange Fair is a product of friendly competition spanning back a century; farmers in the community were inspired to create a way to foster friendly competition in regard to growing and comparing their best vegetables, and, in that year of 1923, the fair as it is loved today was born; and

WHEREAS, The early displays of produce, baking, and flowers were auctioned off after being judged, creating a traditional finale to the fair; and

WHEREAS, As the popularity of the fair grew, the crowds became too large for the small Grange Hall; starting in 1946, the fair was moved to the then Yorktown School, now the Community and Cultural Center, in the middle of Yorktown Heights; the gymnasium was used for exhibits and tents were put up outside to accommodate livestock and the sale of commercial space; and

WHEREAS, A testament to its ever-growing success, the Yorktown Grange Fair was awarded first place in a statewide competition, winning a plaque, and receiving a monetary prize of $200; on the national level, the fair was awarded a $500 prize and an additional plaque; and

WHEREAS, With a newfound passion to take the Yorktown Grange Fair to new heights, by-laws were created in December of 1954, and the first Fair Association was thereby created and officially met for its first meeting on February 24, 1955; the creation of this new entity allowed for business relations and planning of the fair to be done for the first time outside of organized Grange meetings; and

WHEREAS, The Yorktown Grange Fair still provides a showcase for the town's residents and surrounding areas to present their goods, including vegetables, flowers, needlework, baking, livestock, and poultry; and

WHEREAS, This year's theme for the fair is "Centennial Celebration - 100 Years of Family Fun"; generations of families and friends will attend this year's fair to enjoy amazing livestock exhibits, sensational art shows, thrilling rides, delicious food, live music, and an atmosphere of fun and friendship; and

WHEREAS, As a result of the sparkling success of this established event, the Yorktown Grange Fair has been able to return donations and provide financial support to various organizations within their community, making a proper investment in the future of the town and those who reside within it; and

WHEREAS, Over the past century, the Yorktown Grange Fair has demonstrated an unrelenting commitment to provide cultural enrichment, lessons in history and agriculture, as well as entertainment to its community, and, as a result, has brought pride and recognition to its local community and to our great Empire State; now, therefore, be it
