Introduced by Sens. SANDERS, GOUNARDES, HOYLMAN-SIGAL, KRUEGER, MAY, RAMOS, RIVERA, THOMAS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting the disclosure or use of a person's consumer credit history to an employer, labor organization, employment agency or agent thereof for purposes of employment decisions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 380-a of the general business law is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision (v) to read as follows:

3 (v) The term "consumer credit history" means an individual's credit 4 worthiness, credit standing, credit capacity or payment history, as 5 indicated by:

6 (1) a consumer credit report;

7 (2) credit score; or

8 (3) information an employer obtains directly from the individual 9 regarding (i) details about credit accounts, including the individual's 10 number of credit accounts, late or missed payments, charged-off debts, 11 items in collections, credit limit or prior credit report inquiries, or 12 (ii) bankruptcies, judgments or liens.

13 A consumer credit report shall include any written or other communi-14 cation of any information by a consumer reporting agency that bears on a 15 consumer's creditworthiness, credit standing, credit capacity or credit 16 history.

17 § 2. Subdivision (d) of section 380-b of the general business law is 18 relettered subdivision (g) and three new subdivisions (d), (e) and (f) 19 are added to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD00590-02-3

1 (d) (1) Except as provided in this subdivision, it shall be an unlaw-2 ful discriminatory practice for an employer, labor organization, employ-3 ment agency or any agent thereof to request or to use for employment 4 purposes the consumer credit history of an applicant for employment or 5 employee, or otherwise discriminate against an applicant or employee 6 with regard to hiring, compensation, or the terms, conditions or privi-
7 leges of employment based on the consumer credit history of the appli-8 cant or employee.

9 (2) Paragraph one of this subdivision shall not apply to:

10 (i) an employer, or agent thereof, that is required by state or feder-
11 al law or by a self-regulatory organization as defined in section 12 3(a)(26) of the securities exchange act of 1934, as amended to use an 13 individual's consumer credit history for employment purposes;

14 (ii) persons applying for positions as or employed as peace officers 15 or police officers, as such terms are defined in subdivisions thirty-16 three and thirty-four of section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, 17 respectively, or in a position with a law enforcement or investigative 18 function in a law enforcement agency;

19 (iii) persons in a position that is subject to background investi-
20 gation by a state agency, provided, however, that the appointing agency 21 may not use consumer credit history information for employment purposes 22 unless the position is an appointed position in which a high degree of 23 public trust, as defined by the commission in rules, has been reposed.

24 (iv) in a position in which an employee is required to be bonded under 25 state or federal law;

26 (v) in a position in which an employee is required to possess security 27 clearance under federal law or the law of any state;

28 (vi) in a non-clerical position having regular access to trade
29 secrets, intelligence information or national security information;

30 (vii) in a position: (A) having signatory authority over third party 31 funds or assets valued at ten thousand dollars or more; or (B) that 32 involves a fiduciary responsibility to the employer with the authority 33 to enter financial agreements valued at ten thousand dollars or more on 34 behalf of the employer; or

35 (viii) in a position with regular duties that allow the employee to 36 modify digital security systems established to prevent the unauthorized 37 use of the employer's or client's networks or databases.

38 (3) As used in this subdivision the following terms shall have the 39 following meanings:

40 (i) "intelligence information" means records and data compiled for the 41 purpose of criminal investigation or counterterrorism, including records 42 and data relating to the order or security of a correctional facility, 43 reports of informants, investigators or other persons, or from any type 44 of surveillance associated with an identifiable individual, or investi-
45 gation or analysis of potential terrorist threats;

46 (ii) "national security information" means any knowledge relating to 47 the national defense or foreign relations of the United States, regard-48 less of its physical form or characteristics, that is owned by, produced 49 by or for, or is under the control of the United States government and 50 is defined as such by the United States government and its agencies and 51 departments; and

52 (iii) "trade secrets" means information that: (A) derives independent 53 economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, 54 and not being readily ascertainable by proper means by other persons who 55 can obtain economic value from its disclosure or use; (B) is the subject 56 of efforts that are reasonable under the circumstances to maintain its

1 secrecy; and (C) can reasonably be said to be the end product of signif-
2 icant innovation. The term "trade secrets" does not include general
3 proprietary company information such as handbooks and policies. The term 4 "regular access to trade secrets" does not include access to or the use 5 of client, customer or mailing lists.

6 (4) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude an employer from 7 requesting or receiving consumer credit history information pursuant to 8 a lawful subpoena, court order or law enforcement investigation.

9 (5) Paragraph one of this subdivision shall not be construed to affect 10 the obligations of persons required by state or local law relating to 11 disclosures by public employees of conflicts of interest.

12 (e) (1) Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, it shall be 13 an unlawful discriminatory practice for any state or municipal agency to 14 request or use for licensing or permitting purposes information 15 contained in the consumer credit history of an applicant, licensee or 16 permittee for licensing or permitting purposes.

17 (2) Paragraph one of this subdivision shall not apply to an agency
18 required by state or federal law to use an individual's consumer credit 19 history for licensing or permitting purposes.

20 (3) Paragraph one of this subdivision shall not be construed to affect 21 the ability of an agency to consider an applicant's, licensee's, regis-22 trant's or permittee's failure to pay any tax, fine, penalty or fee for 23 which liability has been admitted by the person liable therefor, or for 24 which judgment has been entered by a court or administrative tribunal of 25 competent jurisdiction, or any tax for which a government agency has 26 issued a warrant, or a lien or levy on property.

27 (4) Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude a licensing agency from 28 requesting, receiving, or using consumer credit history information
29 obtained pursuant to a lawful subpoena, court order or specific law 30 enforcement investigation.

31 (f) This section does not annul, alter, affect or exempt any employer, 32 labor organization, employment agency or any agent thereof subject to 33 the provisions of this section from complying with any local law, ordi-34 nance or regulation with respect to the use of consumer credit history 35 for employment purposes except to the extent that those laws are incon-36 sistent with any provision of this section, and then only to the extent 37 of such inconsistency. For purposes of this subdivision, a local law, 38 ordinance or regulation is not inconsistent with this section if the 39 protection such law or regulation affords an employee or job applicant 40 is greater than the protection provided by this section.

41 § 3. The division of human rights shall request information from state 42 and local agencies and non-governmental employers regarding the agen-
43 cies' and employers' use of the exemptions established in subdivision 44 (d) of section 380-b of the general business law for purposes of hiring 45 and employment. Within two years of the effective date of this act, the 46 division of human rights shall submit to the legislature a report 47 concerning the results of such request and any relevant feedback from 48 agencies and employers.

49 § 4. Paragraph 3 of subdivision (a) of section 380-b of the general
50 business law, as amended by chapter 797 of the laws of 1984, is amended 51 to read as follows:

52 (3) To a person whom it has reason to believe intends to use the 53 information (i) in connection with a credit transaction involving the 54 consumer on whom the information is to be furnished and involving the 55 extension of credit to, or review or collection of an account of, the 56 consumer, or (ii) [~~for employment purposes, or (iii)~~] in connection with

1 the underwriting of insurance involving the consumer, or [~~(iv)~~] (iii) in 2 connection with a determination of the consumer's eligibility for a 3 license or other benefit granted by a governmental instrumentality 4 required by law to consider an applicant's financial responsibility or 5 status, or [~~(v)~~] (iv) to a person in connection with a business trans-6 action involving the consumer where the user has a legitimate business 7 need for such information, or [~~(vi)~~] (v) in connection with the rental 8 or lease of a residence.
9 § 5. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 10 it shall have become a law.
