28 § 4. Section 402 of the real property tax law is amended by adding a

30 4. Possessory interests, as described in paragraph (k) of subdivision

33 corporation in which the possessory interests are located, after public 34 hearing, adopts a local law, ordinance or resolution so providing, 35 provided, however, the provisions of this section shall not be applica-
36 ble where a possessory interest is making payments in lieu of taxes
37 which payment is equal to the taxes that would be paid had the property
38 been taxable. Any such local law, ordinance or resolution shall apply 39 alike to all possessory interests which are located within the municipal 40 corporation. Possessory interests in existence on the effective date of 41 the local law, ordinance or resolution shall be partially exempt from 42 taxation for the next succeeding four years in accordance with this 43 section; provided, however, that (a) if the lease, contract, option or 44 other agreement is renegotiated or renewed and such renegotiation or 45 renewal becomes effective during those four years, the partial exemption 46 shall not be available subsequent to the effective date of the new 47 agreement, and (b) if the lease, contract, option or other agreement 48 contains any provision assigning liability between the parties in the 49 event that real property taxes are imposed, the partial exemption shall 50 not be available to possessory interests created thereunder. Except in 51 the instances set forth in this subdivision, for the first taxable 52 status date occurring subsequent to the effective date of the local law,

54 from taxation by any municipal corporation in which located to the 55 extent of eighty percent of the assessed value; for the second taxable 56 status date, to the extent of sixty percent; for the third taxable

Notwithstanding any other provision of law in this chapter, possessory interests on parcels which have been designated as military land shall be fully exempt from school property tax if the school district whereupon such military land parcels are situated receives Impact Aid funds from the federal government pursuant to 30 CFR Part 222.

§ 5. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
