IN SENATE

February 22, 2023

Introduced by Sens. LANZA, MATTERA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Health

AN ACT to amend the public health law, in relation to prohibiting a mandatory immunization against the novel coronavirus/COVID-19

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 2 2184 to read as follows:

3 § 2184. Novel coronavirus/COVID-19; immunization. 1. No child under 4 the age of eighteen shall be required to receive such vaccine against 5 COVID-19 unless a person in a parental relation to such child requests 6 and consents to have the child vaccinated. For the purpose of this 7 subdivision the term "person in parental relation to a child" shall have 8 the same meaning as set forth in section twenty-one hundred sixty-four 9 of this article. Prior to administering the immunization every health 10 care provider or practitioner shall provide a list of ingredients
11 contained in the vaccine as provided by the manufacturer product insert 12 and all potential side effects as indicated by industry studies.

13 2. No incapacitated person shall be required to receive such immuniza-14 tion against COVID-19 unless a person who is the legal guardian of such 15 incapacitated person chooses to have the incapacitated person vaccinat-16 ed. For the purposes of this subdivision: (a) the term "incapacitated 17 person" shall mean any person over the age of eighteen who is unable to 18 make or communicate decisions affecting their physical health, safety, 19 or self-care; and (b) the term "legal guardian" shall mean and include 20 any person who is over the age of eighteen and designated by an incapac-21 itated person prior to incapacitation as their legal guardian or a 22 person legally appointed by a court as guardian of such incapacitated 23 person.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
