Introduced by Sen. THOMAS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Local Government

AN ACT authorizing the town of Hempstead to transfer ownership of certain parkland to the village of Freeport

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any law to the contrary,
2 the town of Hempstead, acting by and through its governing body is here-
3 by authorized and empowered to convey the property described in section 4 two of this act, which was heretofore used by such town for park and/or 5 recreational purposes, upon terms agreed upon between the parties, to 6 the village of Freeport for use by such village for park and/or recre-7 ational purposes, provided, however, that such village of Freeport shall 8 continue to provide access to such parkland and/or recreational facili-
9 ties to all residents of the town of Hempstead and the village shall not 10 enact any fees or charges which are higher for town residents who are 11 not village residents. Any revenues received from the town from the 12 transfer shall be used for capital improvements of existing park or 13 recreational and/or the acquisition of additional park or recreational 14 facilities.

15 § 2. The lands referred to in section one of this act are located,

48 § 3. The land to be transferred pursuant to this act and all struc-
49 tures and facilities situated on such land shall be maintained, owned 50 and operated for park purposes by the village of Freeport. The use of 51 such parkland and facilities shall continue to be made available to the 52 general public of the state of New York, including all residents of the 53 town of Hempstead and the village of Freeport.

54 § 4. Where availability of such public parkland and facilities is 55 limited, the use of such parkland and facilities must be determined by 56 an equitable method which provides priority use to the general public of

1 the state of New York, including all residents of the town of Hempstead
2 and the village of Freeport, based on a reservation policy for free or 3 for a nominal charge. Fees charged to non-residents of the town of Hemp-4 stead or the village of Freeport shall not exceed twice those charged to 5 residents of such town or village. Where there is no charge for resi-6 dents of such town or village but a fee is charged to non-residents,
7 non-residents fees cannot exceed fees charged for residents at compara-8 ble state or local public facilities. Reservation, membership or annual 9 permit systems available to residents must also be available to non-re-10 sidents and the period of availability must be the same for both resi-11 dents and non-residents.

12 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
