

STATE OF NEW YORK

6709--A

2023-2024 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

May 5, 2023

Introduced by Sen. SKOUFIS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary -- recommitted to the Committee on Judiciary in accordance with Senate Rule 6, sec. 8 -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the civil practice law and rules, in relation to providing a testimonial privilege to critical incident stress management/crisis response/peer support team members concerning communications made during critical incident stress management/crisis response services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Short title. This act shall be known and may be cited as
2 the "Lieutenant Joseph Banish mental health act".

3 § 2. The civil practice law and rules is amended by adding a new
4 section 4508-a to read as follows:

5 § 4508-a. Critical incident stress management/crisis response/peer
6 support team member. (a) Definitions. As used in this section the 7 following terms shall have the following meanings:

8 1. "Emergency services provider" means any individual working or
9 volunteering in the following service capacities; law enforcement, fire-
10 fighting, emergency medical services, communications/dispatch services,
11 public safety, disaster/emergency managers and disaster responders.

12 2. "Critical incident stress management/crisis response services/peer 13 support" means contact with a trained member of an organized emergency
14 response team who provides intervention, support, consultation, risk
15 assessment, referral and follow-up services.

16 3. "A trained member" means an individual who received specialized
17 training in critical incident stress management/crisis response/peer
18 support and offers services as part of an organized emergency response
19 team.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD03381-06-4

1 4. "Critical incident stress management/crisis response/peer support"
2 means a comprehensive, integrated, strategic and multi-component
3 approach to manage critical incident stress during and following inci-
4 dents and/or for any issue that may impact work and family life. Crit-
5 ical incident stress management/crisis response/peer support services
6 may include:

7 (A) Pre-incident education and preparation;

8 (B) Assessment;

9 (C) Crisis intervention;

10 (D) Strategic planning;

11 (E) Large group interventions;

12 (F) Small group interventions;

13 (G) One-on-one assistance;

14 (H) Family critical incident stress management;

15 (I) Organizational, community intervention, and consultation;

16 (J) Pastoral crisis intervention; and

17 (K) Follow-up and referral.

18 (b) Confidential information privileged. A trained member who received
19 specialized training in critical incident stress management/crisis
20 response/peer support as a member of an organized emergency response
21 team shall not be required to disclose oral or written communication,
22 notes, records or reports made by an individual while receiving such 23 services or be required to disclose his/her communications with the 24 individual in need of critical incident stress management/crisis
25 response/peer support services except:

26 1. Where the individual who received critical incident stress
27 management/crisis response services/peer support gives express consent
28 to the testimony;

29 2. The communication reveals the contemplation of a crime or admission
30 of criminal conduct;

31 3. The individual represents harm to self or others; or

32 4. The individual is suspected of child abuse or is at risk for child
33 abuse.

34 (c) Rules and regulations. The division of criminal justice services
35 shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to effectuate this
36 section and shall be empowered to identify minimum certifications
37 required of trained members, approved training courses, record keeping
38 requirements, and retraining requirements.

39 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.