Introduced by M. of A. WILLIAMS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Real Property Taxation -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to a real property tax exemption for property owned by persons employed as a police officer in the state of New York

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new section 466-o to read as follows:

§ 466-o. Police service. 1. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Police officer" shall have the same meaning as defined in section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law;

(b) "Latest class ratio" means the latest final class ratio established by the state board pursuant to title one of article twelve of this chapter for use in a special assessing unit as defined in section eighteen hundred one of this chapter; and

(c) "Latest state equalization rate" means the latest final equalization rate established by the state board pursuant to article twelve of this chapter.

2. (a) After the local legislative body of a county, city, town, or village passes a local law, or a school district passes a resolution, notwithstanding any other provision of law, real property owned by a police officer and constituting the primary residence of such police officer shall be exempt from taxation to the extent of fifteen per centum of the assessed valuation thereof; provided however, that such exemption shall not exceed twelve thousand dollars or the product of twelve thousand dollars multiplied by the latest state equalization rate of the assessing unit, or, in the case of a special assessing unit, the latest class ratio, whichever is less.

(b) Within such local law or resolution, the local legislative body or school district may reduce the percentage of exemption or maximum exempt assessed valuation authorized pursuant to this subdivision.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

3. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the provisions of this section shall apply to any real property held in trust solely for the benefit of a person or persons who would otherwise be eligible for a real property tax exemption, pursuant to subdivision two of this section, were such person or persons the owner or owners of such real property.

4. (a) For the purposes of this section, title to that portion of real property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation in which a tenant-stockholder of such corporation resides and which is represented by their share or shares of stock in such corporation as determined by its or their proportional relationship to the total outstanding stock of the corporation, including that owned by the corporation, shall be deemed to be vested in such tenant-stockholder.

(b) Provided that all other eligibility criteria of this section are met, that proportion of the assessment of such real property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation determined by the relationship of such real property vested in such tenant-stockholder to such real property owned by such cooperative apartment corporation in which such tenant-stockholder resides shall be subject to exemption from taxation pursuant to this section and any exemption so granted shall be credited by the appropriate taxing authority against the assessed valuation of such real property; the reduction in real property taxes realized thereby shall be credited by the cooperative apartment corporation against the amount of such taxes otherwise payable by or chargeable to such tenant-stockholder.

(c) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subdivision, a tenant-stockholder who resides in a dwelling that is subject to the provisions of either article two, four, five or eleven of the private housing finance law shall not be eligible for an exemption pursuant to this section.

(d) Notwithstanding paragraph (b) of this subdivision, real property owned by a cooperative apartment corporation may be exempt from taxation pursuant to this section by a municipality in which such real property is located only if the governing body of such municipality, after public hearing, adopts a local law, ordinance or resolution providing therefor.

5. The commissioner shall develop, in consultation with the commissioner of the division of criminal justice services, a listing of documents to be used to establish eligibility under this section. Such information shall be made available to each city, village, town, special district and county assessor's office. The listing of acceptable records shall be made available on the internet websites of the division of criminal justice services and the office of real property tax services.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the second of January next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law and shall apply to real property having a taxable status date on or after such effective date.
