Introduced by M. of A. TAYLOR -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting certain debt arrears from being reported to consumer reporting agencies

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399-zzzzzz to read as follows:

§ 399-zzzzzz. Prohibition on reporting of certain debt arrears. 1. No person, firm, partnership, association or corporation shall report debt arrears of an individual which are due to a COVID-19 related hardship to a consumer reporting agency as defined in section three hundred eighty-a of this chapter.

2. Debt arrears reported in violation of the provisions of subdivision one of this section shall be expunged from the file, as defined in section three hundred eighty-a of this chapter, of any individual who files a dispute regarding such debt arrears pursuant to section three hundred eighty-f of this chapter.

3. As used in this section "COVID-19 related hardship" means:

(a) A significant loss of household income during the COVID-19 pandemic.

(b) Increase in necessary out-of-pocket expenses related to performing essential work or related to health impacts during the COVID-19 pandemic.

(c) Childcare responsibilities or responsibilities to care for an elderly, disabled, or sick family member during the COVID-19 pandemic have negatively affected the ability of the individual or the ability of someone in the household of such individual to obtain meaningful employment or earn income or increased such individual's necessary out-of-pocket expenses.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
