AN ACT to amend the state finance law, in relation to procurement requirements for end point device security

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 9 of section 165 of the state finance law, as added by a chapter of the laws of 2024 amending the state finance law relating to procurement requirements for end point device security, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 5615 and A. 2833, is amended to read as follows:

9. End point device security. (a) For the purposes of this subdivision "end point device" shall mean personal computing goods that include desktops, laptops, all-in-ones, tablets, mobile or cellular telephones, thin clients, and monitors of various sizes; printers; and multi-functional devices that include imaging devices that combine operations such as copying, printing, scanning and faxing into one machine.

(b) The commissioner and all state agencies, when procuring end point devices, shall [~~require those devices, services and solutions to meet~~] be consistent with any relevant standards, guidelines, or guidance developed as part of the National Institute of Standards and Technology (NIST) Cybersecurity Framework.

[~~(c) Within one year of adoption of any amendments to the security standards and guidelines referenced in paragraph (b) of this subdivision the commissioner and each state agency shall update their end point device procurement requirements.~~]

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as a chapter of the laws of 2024 amending the state finance law relating to procurement requirements for end point device security, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 5615 and A. 2833, takes effect.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
