§ 2. The public authorities law is amended by adding a new section 1266-n to read as follows:

§ 1266-n. Training in the reporting of suspected cases of child abuse and maltreatment. 1. Every employee of the authority required to report child abuse or maltreatment, pursuant to subdivision one of section four hundred thirteen of the social services law, shall, prior to assumption of the position which requires such reporting, complete two hours of coursework or training regarding the identification and reporting of child abuse and maltreatment; provided that every employee holding such a position on or before the effective date of this section shall complete such coursework or training within one year of the effective date of this section. Employees shall complete two hours of subsequent coursework or training not less than once every two years.

2. The office of children and family services shall approve and/or establish the coursework and training required to implement the provisions of this section. Such coursework and training may be developed so that it can be offered through various means including, but not limited to, internet-based courses and teleconferences.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however that if chapter 733 of the laws of 2023 shall not have taken effect on or before such date then section one of this act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as such chapter of the laws of 2023, takes effect.
