AN ACT in relation to requiring the state to pay for certain late fees or fines

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, in the event the legislature and the governor fail to pass a timely state budget by April first of any year, and no provision is made to pay state employees for any duration of time and as a result, such state employee incurs any late fees or fines, including but not limited to, overdrafts, late payment fees and automatic withdrawals, the comptroller shall reimburse such state employee for any such late fees or fines.

2. The comptroller shall promulgate any necessary rules or regulations necessary for the implementation of this act, including but not limited to, the manner in which and to whom such state employee submits documentation proving such late fees or fines.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
