AN ACT to amend the parks, recreation and historic preservation law, in relation to providing free use of state parks to family members of deceased military

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The parks, recreation and historic preservation law is amended by adding a new section 13.26 to read as follows:

§ 13.26 Free use of state parks. Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law, family members of individuals who served in the active military, naval or air service during a period of war and died in such service, shall be permitted to use any of the state parks, upon the same terms and conditions as apply to the general public, but without the payment of any fees or other charges for the use of such state park.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and completed on or before such date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
