AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to degree-granting programs offered by SUNY's office of higher education in prison

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 355-f to read as follows:

§ 355-f. Office of higher education in prison. 1. Within amounts appropriated therefor, there shall be created within the state university of New York an office of higher education in prison with the purpose of promoting and coordinating access to higher education for individuals during and after incarceration in New York state. Such office shall:

(a) no later than January first, two thousand twenty-nine, develop and implement a plan, approved by the chancellor of the state university of New York or such chancellor's designee, to establish and operate a degree-granting program in every correctional facility, as defined by section two of the correction law, that is located in the state and determined to be viable by such office; and

(b) enroll a total of at least two thousand students in degree-granting programs established under paragraph (a) of this subdivision as soon as practicable.

2. The commissioner of the department of corrections and community supervision shall work with the state university of New York and the office of higher education in prison to maximize educational opportunities for students in programs established under paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section, including access to federal and state financial aid.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
