2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 18, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. WOERNER, HUNTER, K. BROWN, JONES, TAGUE, ANGELINO, HAWLEY, NOVAKHOV, LUPARDO, LEVENBERG -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring additional notice prior to commencing an action in certain discrimination cases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 9 of section 297 of the executive law, as 2 amended by chapter 140 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 9. a. Any person claiming to be aggrieved by an unlawful discriminato-
5 ry practice shall have a cause of action in any court of appropriate
6 jurisdiction for damages, including, in cases of employment discrimi-
7 nation related to private employers and housing discrimination only,
8 punitive damages, and such other remedies as may be appropriate, includ-
9 ing any civil fines and penalties provided in subdivision four of this 10 section, unless such person had filed a complaint hereunder or with any 11 local commission on human rights, or with the superintendent pursuant to 12 the provisions of section two hundred ninety-six-a of this article, 13 provided that, where the division has dismissed such complaint on the 14 grounds of administrative convenience, on the grounds of untimeliness,
15 or on the grounds that the election of remedies is annulled, such person 16 shall maintain all rights to bring suit as if no complaint had been 17 filed with the division. At any time prior to a hearing before a hearing 18 examiner, a person who has a complaint pending at the division may 19 request that the division dismiss the complaint and annul [~~his or her~~ 20 the election of remedies so that the human rights law claim may be 21 pursued in court, and the division may, upon such request, dismiss the 22 complaint on the grounds that such person's election of an administra-
23 tive remedy is annulled. Notwithstanding subdivision (a) of section two 24 hundred four of the civil practice law and rules, if a complaint is so

1 annulled by the division, upon the request of the party bringing such 2 complaint before the division, such party's rights to bring such cause 3 of action before a court of appropriate jurisdiction shall be limited by 4 the statute of limitations in effect in such court at the time the 5 complaint was initially filed with the division. Any party to a housing 6 discrimination complaint shall have the right within twenty days follow-7 ing a determination of probable cause pursuant to subdivision two of 8 this section to elect to have an action commenced in a civil court, and 9 an attorney representing the division of human rights will be appointed 10 to present the complaint in court, or, with the consent of the division,
11 the case may be presented by complainant's attorney. A complaint filed 12 by the equal employment opportunity commission to comply with the 13 requirements of 42 USC 2000e-5(c) and 42 USC 12117(a) and 29 USC 633(b) 14 shall not constitute the filing of a complaint within the meaning of 15 this subdivision. No person who has initiated any action in a court of 16 competent jurisdiction or who has an action pending before any adminis-17 trative agency under any other law of the state based upon an act which 18 would be an unlawful discriminatory practice under this article, may 19 file a complaint with respect to the same grievance under this section 20 or under section two hundred ninety-six-a of this article. In cases of 21 housing discrimination only, a person whose complaint has been dismissed 22 by the division after investigation for lack of jurisdiction or lack of 23 probable cause may file the same cause of action in a court of appropri-24 ate jurisdiction pursuant to this section, unless judicial review of 25 such dismissal has been sought pursuant to section two hundred ninety-26 eight of this article. The attorney general shall have the power to 27 commence an action or proceeding in the supreme court of the state of 28 New York, if, upon information or belief, the attorney general is of the 29 opinion that an employer has been, is, or is about to violate the 30 provisions regarding unlawful discriminatory retaliation pursuant to 31 subdivision seven of section two hundred ninety-six of this article.
32 Nothing in this section shall in any way limit rights or remedies which 33 are otherwise available under law to the attorney general or any other 34 person authorized to bring an action under this section.

35 b. Notwithstanding paragraph a of this subdivision, prior to commenc-36 ing an action in any court of competent jurisdiction alleging that the 37 contents of a website or mobile application that describes goods and 38 services provided at a place of public accommodation, resort or amuse-39 ment constitute an unlawful discriminatory practice with respect to 40 visually and hearing impaired individuals, the claimant shall serve
41 written notice upon the owner of such place of public accommodation, 42 resort or amusement by both certified mail, return receipt requested and 43 first class mail that (i) describes each and every feature of such 44 website and/or mobile application alleged to constitute an unlawful 45 discriminatory practice and (ii) provides such owner with an opportunity 46 to correct such alleged violation or violations within sixty days from 47 service of such notice.

48 c. Within the sixty-day period of time described in paragraph b of 49 this subdivision, the owner of a place of public accommodation, resort
50 or amusement may advise the claimant by written notice by both certified 51 mail, return receipt requested and first class mail that the alleged 52 violation or violations have either been corrected or did not occur and 53 do not need correction.

54 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
