AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to interim appointments to the state board of parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 259-b of the executive law, as amended by section 38-a of subpart A of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

1. There shall be in the department a state board of parole which shall possess the powers and duties hereinafter specified. The board shall function independently of the department regarding all of its decision-making functions, as well as any other powers and duties specified in this article, provided, however, that administrative matters of general applicability within the department shall be applicable to the board. Such board shall consist of not more than nineteen members appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The term of office of each member of such board shall be for six years; provided, however, that any member chosen to fill a vacancy occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be appointed for the remainder of the unexpired term of the member whom [~~he is~~] they are to succeed. In the event of a vacancy occurring during an adjournment of the senate, the governor may make an interim appointment to fill such vacancy, which shall be reviewed by the senate upon reconvening and shall either be confirmed to a full appointment or removed at such time. In the event of the inability to act of any member, the governor may appoint some competent informed person to act in [~~his~~] their stead during the continuance of such disability.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
