IN ASSEMBLY

March 18, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. SLATER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the real property law and the public housing law, in relation to ensuring safe housing transfers for domestic violence victims

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "safe housing transfer for domestic violence victims act".

2 § 2. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature finds that 3 domestic violence victims face significant barriers to securing safe
4 housing. While existing law permits early lease termination, victims
5 often face challenges finding new affordable housing. This act seeks to 6 expand protections by allowing landlords of affordable housing proper-7 ties to offer safe relocation options to domestic violence victims, 8 ensuring housing stability while prioritizing victim safety.

9 § 3. Subdivision 6 of section 227-c of the real property law is renum-
10 bered subdivision 7 and a new subdivision 6 is added to read as follows:

11 6. Right to relocation for domestic violence victims. (a) (i) A tenant 12 who is a victim of domestic violence, as such term is defined in section 13 four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law, shall have the 14 right to request a transfer to another dwelling unit owned or operated 15 by the same landlord within a reasonable geographic proximity, subject 16 to availability.

17 (ii) Landlords shall prioritize transfer requests under this subdivi-18 sion over non-emergency tenant transfers and vacancies for new appli-19 cants.

20 (iii) Landlords shall not retaliate against a tenant who requests to 21 relocate under this subdivision by taking any adverse action against 22 such tenant including, but not limited to, eviction, harassment, or 23 denial of lease renewal.
