IN ASSEMBLY

March 18, 2025

Introduced by M. of A. K. BROWN -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to establishing the felony of aggressive driving

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 1212-a to read as follows:

§ 1212-a. Aggressive driving. (a) Aggressive driving shall mean driving or using any motor vehicle and performing two or more of the following actions: driving in violation of section eleven hundred ten of this title; driving in violation of section eleven hundred twenty-six of this title; driving in violation of section eleven hundred twenty-nine of this title; driving in violation of section eleven hundred thirty of this title; driving in violation of section eleven hundred thirty-one of this title; driving in violation of section eleven hundred eighty of this title by driving at a speed of more than twenty miles per hour over the posted speed limit; suddenly and abruptly stopping or slowing the vehicle while another vehicle is directly behind; or driving in a manner which unreasonably interferes with the free and proper use of a public highway.

(b) Every person convicted of violating this section shall be guilty of a class E felony. Upon a conviction for a second violation of this section, such person shall be guilty of a class D felony.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
