Introduced by M. of A. BURDICK -- read once and referred to the Committee on Local Governments

AN ACT to amend the town law and the public officers law, in relation to authorizing the assistant court clerk and fire marshal of the town of Harrison, county of Westchester, to be nonresidents of such town

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 23 of the town law is amended by adding a new subdivision 37 to read as follows:

37. Notwithstanding the provisions of subdivision one of this section, in the town of Harrison, in the county of Westchester, the person performing the function of assistant court clerk or fire marshal, need not be an elector of such town. Provided, however, the person performing the function of assistant court clerk or fire marshal in any other town shall be an elector of such town, unless otherwise provided by an act of the state legislature.

§ 2. Section 3 of the public officers law is amended by adding a new subdivision 76 to read as follows:

76. In the town of Harrison, in the county of Westchester, the provisions of this section requiring a person to be a resident of the political subdivision or municipal corporation of the state for which such person shall be chosen or within which such person's official functions are required to be exercised, shall not prevent a person from holding the office of assistant court clerk or fire marshal of the town of Harrison; provided that such person resides in a town which is in the county of Westchester. Provided, however, the person performing the function of assistant court clerk or fire marshal in any other town shall be a resident of such town, unless otherwise provided by law.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
