The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Every bicycle equipped with fully operable pedals and an electric motor with an output of less than seven hundred fifty watts whereby such electric motor engages only when the operator is pedaling and disengages or ceases to function when such bicycle's brakes are applied, the operator stops pedaling, or such bicycle achieves a speed of twenty miles per hour or more.

§ 2. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 1242-b to read as follows:

2. No person shall operate a bicycle, electric bicycle or electric scooter unless such person is wearing a helmet meeting the standards of the American National Standards Institute (ANSI Z 90.4 bicycle helmet standards), the Snell Memorial Foundation's standards for protective headgear for use in bicycling, the American Society of Testing and Materials (ASTM) standards for bicycle helmets, the Safety Equipment Institute standards for bicycle helmets, or the United States Consumer Product Safety Commission standards for bicycle helmets.

fifty dollars. Such traffic infractions shall be heard and determined in accordance with article two-A of this chapter. For a violation of this section by a person less than sixteen years of age, a hearing officer shall waive the civil penalty for which the parent or guardian of a person who violates the provisions of this section would be liable if such parent or guardian supplies proof that between the date of violation and the appearance date for such violation such parent or guardian purchased or rented a helmet that meets the requirements of this section. A hearing officer may waive the civil penalty for which the parent or guardian of a person who violates the provisions of this section would be liable if such hearing officer finds that due to reasons of economic hardship such parent or guardian was unable to purchase or rent a helmet. A waiver of the civil penalty shall not apply to a second or subsequent conviction under this section.

4. The parent or guardian of a person less than sixteen years of age shall be liable for a violation of this section by such person less than sixteen years of age. A summons for a violation of this section by a person less than sixteen years of age shall only be issued to the parent or guardian of such person if the violation occurs in the presence of such parent or guardian and where such parent or guardian is eighteen years of age or more. Such summons shall only be issued to such parent or guardian and shall not be issued to the person less than sixteen years of age.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law.
