AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a job creation tax credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 50 to read
2 as follows:

3 § 50. Job creation tax credit. (a) Allowance of credit. For taxable
4 years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-six, a
5 taxpayer subject to tax under article nine-A or twenty-two of this chap-
6 ter shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this
7 section, against the tax imposed by this article, for each net new job
8 created, for each qualified employee within the state. The taxpayer may 9 claim the credit in the year in which the qualified employee completes
10 six months of employment. A taxpayer may only claim the credit once for 11 each qualified employee and may only claim a tax credit for a maximum of 12 thirty qualified employees in each taxable year. If the taxpayer claims 13 the credit allowed under this section, the taxpayer may not use the 14 hiring of a qualified employee that is the basis for this credit in the 15 basis of any other credit allowed under this article.

16 (b) Qualified employee. A qualified employee is an individual who
17 commences employment by the qualified taxpayer on or after January
18 first, two thousand twenty-six.

19 (c) Net new job. "Net new job" means jobs created in this state that 20 (1) are new to the state, (2) have not been transferred from employment
21 with another business that is a related person, (3) are either full-time
22 wage-paying jobs or equivalent to a full-time wage-paying job requiring 23 at least thirty-five hours per week, and (4) are filled for more than 24 six months.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.

(d) Employer prohibition. An employer shall not discharge an employee and hire a qualifying employee solely for the purpose of qualifying for this credit.

(e) Amount of credit. The amount of the credit shall be six percent of the total amount of wages paid to the qualified employee during the employee's first six months of employment. Provided, however, that, if the qualified employee was receiving unemployment insurance benefits at the time of hire for a minimum of thirteen weeks or is employed directly in the manufacturing process in an eligible industry, the amount of the credit shall be twelve percent of the total amount of wages paid to the qualified employee during the employee's first six months of employment. The credit allowed pursuant to this subdivision shall not exceed in any taxable year, seven hundred fifty dollars for any qualified employee and one thousand five hundred dollars for any qualified employee who was receiving unemployment insurance benefits at the time of hire for a minimum of thirteen weeks or who is employed directly in the manufacturing process in an eligible industry.

(f) Eligible industry. An eligible industry is a business principally engaged in the production of goods by manufacturing, processing, assembling, refining, mining, extracting, farming, agriculture, horticulture, floriculture, viticulture or commercial fishing.

§ 2. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 61 to read as follows:

61. Job creation tax credit. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer will be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in section fifty of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

(b) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year may not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the higher of the amounts prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this article. However, if the amount of credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such taxable year will be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest will be paid thereon.

§ 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (qqq) to read as follows:

(qqq) Job creation tax credit. (1) A taxpayer will be allowed a credit, to the extent allowed under section fifty of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

(2) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year exceeds the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess will be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest will be paid thereon.

§ 4. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (lii) to read as follows:

(lii) Job creation tax credit	Amount of credit under
under subsection (qqq)	subdivision sixty-one
	of section two hundred ten-B

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2026.
