2025-2026 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 24, 2025

Introduced by Sen. COONEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Procurement and Contracts

AN ACT to amend the state finance law and the general municipal law, in relation to prohibiting procurement of certain technology that poses security threats

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The state finance law is amended by adding a new section
2 163-e to read as follows:

3 § 163-e. Restriction on purchasing certain technology which poses a
4 security threat. 1. (a) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of 5 law, the state and any department, bureau, board, commission, authority,
6 and any other agency or instrumentality of the state shall not enter
7 into or renew any contract or agreement to procure information and
8 communications technology, including hardware, systems, devices, soft-
9 ware, or services that include embedded or incidental information tech-
10 nology, which are prohibited from federal procurement pursuant to 11 section 889 of Public Law 115-232 of 2018.

12 (b) The term "information and communications technology" means:
13 (i) information technology, as defined in section 11101 of title 40;
14 (ii) information systems, as defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502; and
15 (iii) telecommunications equipment and telecommunications services, as
16 those terms are defined in section 3 of the Communications Act of 1934
17 (47 U.S.C. 153).

18 (c) The term "information and communications technology" shall not
19 include automated-decision making systems.

20 2. The chief information officer shall, in consultation with the divi-
21 sion of homeland security and emergency services and the office of 22 general services, establish and update regularly a list of restricted
23 information and communications technology. Technology on this list shall 24 not be procured by any state agency, state or local authority, or political subdivision unless a waiver is issued pursuant to subdivision three of this section or the chief information officer determines that the technology shall only be restricted in limited circumstances.

The list shall:

(a) contain information and communications technologies that pose a security risk to the state of New York or its political subdivisions. In determining whether information and communications technology poses such a risk, the chief information officer shall consult relevant federal sources, including the department of defense inspector general report no. DODIG-2019-106, as well as any other source that shall be determined to be relevant;

(b) describe the scope of each restriction, such as whether it is generally prohibited or prohibited in certain circumstances or from certain entities;

(c) include an explanation as to why items were included on the list; and

(d) be published online and communicated to all relevant procurement officers in all state agencies, state authorities, and political subdivisions.

3. The commissioner of homeland security and emergency services, the commissioner of the office of general services, the adjutant general, the chief information officer, the chief cyber officer, the chief technology officer of the city of New York and any federal agency authorized under section 889 of Public Law 115-232 of 2018, may provide a waiver from this section if:

(a) any such entity determines the waiver is in the interests of the state or political subdivision;

(b) no compliant product or service is available to be procured as, and when, needed at United States market prices or a price that is not considered prohibitively expensive; and

(c) such waiver could not reasonably be expected to compromise the security or integrity of a computer network operated by an instrumentality of the state.

4. Nothing in this section shall be construed:

(a) to require any information and communications technology resident in equipment, systems, or services as of the day before the effective date of this section to be removed or replaced;

(b) to prohibit or limit the utilization of such information and communications technology throughout the lifecycle of such existing equipment; or

(c) to require the recipient of a state contract, grant, loan, or loan guarantee to replace information and communications technology resident in equipment, systems, or services before the effective date of this section.

§ 2. The general municipal law is amended by adding a new section 103-h to read as follows:

§ 103-h. Restriction on purchasing certain technology which poses a security threat. 1. (a) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law a political subdivision shall not enter into or renew any contract or agreement to procure information and communications technology, including hardware, systems, devices, software, or services that include embedded or incidental information technology, which are prohibited from federal procurement pursuant to section 889 of Public Law 115-232 of 2018, or which are included on the list created pursuant to subdivision two of section one hundred sixty-three-e of the state finance law.

(b) The term "information and communications technology" means:

1 (i) information technology, as defined in 40 U.S.C. 11101;
2 (ii) information systems, as defined in 44 U.S.C. 3502; and
3 (iii) telecommunications equipment and telecommunications services, as
4 those terms are defined in section 3 of the Communications Act of 1934
5 (47 U.S.C. 153).

6 2. The commissioner of homeland security and emergency services, the 7 commissioner of the office of general services, the adjutant general,
8 the chief information officer, the chief cyber officer, the chief tech-
9 nology officer of the city of New York and any federal agency authorized
10 under section 889 of Public Law 115-232 of 2018, may provide a waiver
11 from this section if:

12 (a) any such entity determines the waiver is in the interest of the 13 political subdivision;

14 (b) no compliant product or service is available to be procured as,
15 and when, needed at United States market prices or a price that is not 16 considered prohibitively expensive; and

17 (c) such waiver could not reasonably be expected to compromise the 18 security or integrity of a computer network operated by an instrumental-
19 ity of the state.

20 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed:

21 (a) to require any information and communications technology resident
22 in equipment, systems, or services as of the day before the effective
23 date of this section to be removed or replaced;

24 (b) to prohibit or limit the utilization of such information and 25 communications technology throughout the lifecycle of such existing 26 equipment; or

27 (c) to require the recipient of a state contract, grant, loan, or loan
28 guarantee to replace information and communications technology resident
29 in equipment, systems, or services before the effective date of this 30 section.

31 § 3. No later than the effective date of this act, the office of 32 general services shall promulgate rules and regulations and issue guid-
33 ance to all state agencies and local procurement authorities necessary,
34 including providing updates on prohibited or excluded entities for 35 procurement contracts in conformity with federal law, rules and regu-
36 lations, no later than sixty days after any entity is prohibited or 37 excluded.

38 § 4. This act shall take effect two years after it shall have become a
39 law. Effective immediately, the office of general services is authorized
40 to promulgate rules and regulations and issue guidance to all state
41 agencies and local procurement authorities necessary for the implementa-
42 tion of this act on its effective date, including providing updates on 43 prohibited or excluded entities for procurement contracts in conformity
44 with federal law, rules and regulations.
