AN ACT to amend the mental hygiene law, in relation to creating the rural suicide prevention council

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The mental hygiene law is amended by adding a new section 7.48 to read as follows:

§ 7.48 Rural suicide prevention council.

(a) There shall be established by the office, a council on rural suicide prevention, to consist of twelve members:

1. two members shall be appointed by the commissioner;

2. two members shall be appointed by the commissioner of health;

3. two members shall be appointed by the commissioner of agriculture and markets;

4. two members shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly;

5. two members shall be appointed by the temporary president of the senate;

6. one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the assembly; and

7. one member shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate.

(b) The commissioner shall designate the chair of the council from among such twelve members. Vacancies in the membership of such council shall be filled by the appropriate appointing authority. The membership of the council may include, but not be limited to, representatives of the state conference of local mental hygiene directors, psychiatric and psychological practitioners, substance use and mental health professionals with experience in the delivery of treatment and prevention services in rural areas, persons with expertise in public health issues,

6 (c) The council shall focus its efforts and work on "rural areas" as 7 such term is defined in section four hundred eighty-one of the executive 8 law.

9 (d) Duties of the council shall include, but not be limited to:

10 1. examining the causes and conditions related to rural suicides or
11 suicide attempts and the prevalence of suicide among certain professions
12 including, but not limited to, farmers and agricultural workers;

13 2. identifying policies, practices, resources, services, and potential
14 legislation that may result in the reduction of rural suicide and rural 15 suicide attempts;

16 3. offering recommendations on policies and procedures to improve the 17 coordination of services and resources among agencies involved in the 18 delivery of mental health, substance use, or suicide prevention
19 services; and

20 4. making recommendations on funding initiatives to increase access to 21 mental health, substance use, and suicide prevention services in rural
22 areas and facilitate the use of innovative intervention strategies
23 specific to individuals residing in rural areas.

24 (e) The rural suicide prevention council shall meet not less than two 25 times annually, or as deemed necessary by the chair of the council or 26 the commissioner.

27 (f) The members of the rural suicide prevention council shall receive 28 no compensation for their services, but shall be allowed their actual
29 and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

30 (g) The council shall prepare and submit a report no later than the 31 first of January next succeeding the effective date of this section, and 32 biennially thereafter, to the governor and the legislature that recom-
33 mends policies, legislation, and funding needed to implement any of the 34 findings in the council's report.

35 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 36 have become a law.
