AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to providing for minimum wage requirements for miscellaneous industry workers; and to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing the one fair wage reimbursement credit

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 196-d of the labor law, as added by chapter 1007 of
2 the laws of 1968, is amended to read as follows:
3 § 196-d. Gratuities. No employer or [~~his~~] their agent or an officer or 4 agent of any corporation, or any other person shall demand or accept,
5 directly or indirectly, any part of the gratuities, received by an
6 employee, or retain any part of a gratuity or of any charge purported to 7 be a gratuity for an employee. This provision shall not apply to the 8 checking of hats, coats or other apparel. Nothing in this subdivision
9 shall be construed as affecting the allowances from the minimum wage for 10 gratuities in the amount determined in accordance with the provisions of 11 article nineteen of this chapter nor as affecting practices in 12 connection with banquets and other special functions where a fixed
13 percentage of the patron's bill is added for gratuities which are 14 distributed to employees, nor to the sharing of tips by a [~~waiter~~] serv-
15 er, if the employer takes a credit for gratuities as permitted by subdi-
16 vision two of section six hundred fifty-two of this chapter with a
17 [~~busboy~~] busser or similar employee, or, if the employer does not take a 18 credit for gratuities as permitted by subdivision two of section six hundred fifty-two of this chapter, with any other non-managerial and non-supervisory employees.

§ 2. Section 651 of the labor law is amended by adding a new subdivision 10 to read as follows:

10. "Miscellaneous industry worker" means any employee covered by the minimum wage order for miscellaneous industries and occupations pursuant to the provisions of 12 NYCRR part 142, including, but not limited to, car wash attendants, nail salon workers, tow truck drivers, dog groomers, wedding planners, tour guides, valet parking attendants, hairdressers, aestheticians, golf and tennis instructors, and door-persons.

§ 3. Subdivisions 2 and 4 of section 652 of the labor law, as amended by section 3 of part S of chapter 56 of the laws of 2023, are amended to read as follows:

2. Existing wage orders. The minimum wage orders in effect on the effective date of this act shall remain in full force and effect, except as modified in accordance with the provisions of this article; provided, however, that the minimum wage order for farm workers codified at part one hundred ninety of title twelve of the New York code of rules and regulations in effect on January first, two thousand twenty shall be deemed to be a wage order established and adopted under this article and shall remain in full force and effect except as modified in accordance with the provisions of this article or article nineteen-A of this chapter.

Such minimum wage orders shall be modified by the commissioner to increase all monetary amounts specified therein in the same proportion as the increase in the hourly minimum wage as provided in subdivisions one, one-a, and one-b of this section, including the amounts specified in such minimum wage orders as allowances for gratuities, and when furnished by the employer to its employees, for meals, lodging, apparel and other such items, services and facilities, except that the hourly cash wage for food service workers, service employees and miscellaneous industry workers who receive tips shall not be less than the cash wage as provided in subdivision four of this section, and the maximum credit for tips in minimum wage orders shall be modified so that such credit, when combined with such cash wage, is equal to the minimum wage, and the hourly cash wage for miscellaneous industry workers shall not be less than the cash wage as provided in subdivision four of this section. All amounts so modified shall be rounded off to the nearest five cents. The modified orders shall be promulgated by the commissioner without a public hearing, and without reference to a wage board, and shall become effective on the effective date of such increases in the minimum wage except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, notwithstanding any other provision of this article.

~~4. [Notwithstanding subdivisions one, one-a, one-b, and two of this section, the wage for an employee who is a food service worker receiving tips shall be a cash wage of at least two thirds of the minimum wage rates set forth in subdivision one of this section, rounded to the nearest five cents or seven dollars and fifty cents, whichever is higher, provided that the tips of such an employee, when added to such cash wage, are equal to or exceed the minimum wage in effect pursuant to subdivisions one, one-a, and one-b of this section and provided further that no other cash wage is established pursuant to section six hundred fifty-three of this article]~~ (a) Notwithstanding subdivisions one and two of this section and section six hundred fifty-three of this article, the wage for an employee who is a food service worker or service employee receiving tips and paid pursuant to the provisions of 12 NYCRR part

146 shall be, for each hour worked in the city of New York, a cash wage of not less than:

$12.77 per hour on and after January 1, 2026;

$14.88 per hour on and after January 1, 2027;

$17.00 per hour on and after January 1, 2028, and beginning on January first, two thousand twenty-nine, a cash wage rate established by the commissioner annually, indexed to inflation as described in subdivision one-b of this section.

(b) Notwithstanding subdivisions one and two of this section and section six hundred fifty-three of this article, the wage for an employee who is a food service worker or service employee receiving tips and paid pursuant to the provisions of 12 NYCRR part 146 shall be, for each hour worked in the counties of Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester, a cash wage of not less than:

$12.77 per hour on and after January 1, 2026;

$14.88 per hour on and after January 1, 2027;

$17.00 per hour on and after January 1, 2028, and beginning on January first, two thousand twenty-nine, a cash wage rate established by the commissioner annually, indexed to inflation as described in subdivision one-b of this section.

(c) Notwithstanding subdivisions one and two of this section and section six hundred fifty-three of this article, the wage for an employee who is a food service worker or service employee receiving tips and paid pursuant to the provisions of 12 NYCRR part 146 shall be, for each hour worked outside the city of New York and the counties of Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester, a cash wage of not less than:

$11.50 per hour on and after January 1, 2026;

$13.00 per hour on and after January 1, 2027;

$14.50 per hour on and after January 1, 2028;

$16.00 per hour on and after January 1, 2029, and beginning on January first, two thousand thirty, a cash wage rate established by the commissioner annually, indexed to inflation as described in subdivision one-b of this section.

(d) Notwithstanding subdivisions one and two of this section, the wage for an employee who is a miscellaneous industry worker receiving tips and paid pursuant to the provisions of 12 NYCRR part 142 shall be for each hour worked in the city of New York, a cash wage of not less than the cash wage rate as described in paragraph (a) of subdivision one-a of this section.

(e) Notwithstanding subdivisions one and two of this section, the wage for an employee who is a miscellaneous industry worker receiving tips and paid pursuant to the provisions of 12 NYCRR part 142 shall be for each hour worked in the counties of Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester, a cash wage of not less than the cash wage rate as described in paragraph (b) of subdivision one-a of this section.

(f) Notwithstanding subdivisions one and two of this section, the wage for an employee who is a miscellaneous industry worker receiving tips and paid pursuant to the provisions of 12 NYCRR part 142 shall be for each hour worked outside the city of New York and the counties of Nassau, Suffolk and Westchester, a cash wage of not less than the cash wage rate as described in paragraph (c) of subdivision one-a of this section.

§ 4. Subdivision 2 of section 653 of the labor law, as added by chapter 14 of the laws of 2000, is amended to read as follows:

(2) The commissioner shall, within six months after enactment of any change in the statutory minimum wage set forth in subdivision one of section six hundred fifty-two of this article, appoint a wage board to inquire and report and recommend any changes to wage orders governing wages payable to food service workers. Such wage board shall be established consistent with the provisions of subdivision one of section six hundred fifty-five of this article, except the representatives of the employees shall be selected upon the nomination of the state American Federation of Labor/Congress of Industrial Organizations; and provided, further, that the representatives of the employers shall be selected upon the nomination of the New York State Business Council. ~~[Any wage order authorizing a lesser wage than the previously and statutorily mandated minimum wage for such employees shall be reviewed by the wage board to ascertain at what level such wage order is sufficient to provide adequate maintenance and to protect the health and livelihood of employees subject to such a wage order after a statutory increase in the mandated minimum wage]~~ Notwithstanding section six hundred fifty-five of this article, a wage order under this subdivision shall not authorize a lesser wage than the previously and statutorily mandated minimum wage for such employees.

§ 5. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 50 to read as follows:

§ 50. One fair wage reimbursement credit. (a) General. (1) A taxpayer subject to tax under article nine-A, twenty-two, or thirty-three of this chapter who is an employer who pays wages at rates pursuant to subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law shall be allowed a credit against such tax in an amount to be calculated as follows:

(i) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-six and before January first, two thousand twenty-seven, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at the minimum wage rate as defined in subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law and one dollar and fifty cents.

(ii) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-seven and before January first, two thousand twenty-eight, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at the minimum wage rate as defined in subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law and one dollar and thirty cents.

(iii) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-eight and before January first, two thousand twenty-nine, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at the minimum wage rate as defined in subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law and one dollar and twenty cents.

(iv) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand twenty-nine and before January first, two thousand thirty, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at the minimum wage rate as defined in subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law and one dollar and ten cents.

(v) For taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand thirty and before January first, two thousand thirty-one, the amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of the total number of hours during the taxable year worked by eligible employees for which they were paid at the minimum wage rate as defined in subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law and one dollar.

(2) In addition, if the federal minimum wage is increased above eight-y-five percent of the minimum wage rate as defined in subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law, the dollar amounts in this subdivision shall be reduced to the difference between the minimum wage rate as defined in subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law and the federal minimum wage. Such reduction shall take effect on the date that employers are required to pay such federal minimum wage.

(b) Definitions. The term "eligible employee" shall mean an employee whose wages are set pursuant to subdivision four of section six hundred fifty-two of the labor law.

(c) Cross-references. For application of the credit provided for in this section, see the following provisions of this chapter:

(1) article 9-A: section 210-B, subdivision 61;

(2) article 22: section 606, subsections (i) and (qqq);

(3) article 33: section 1511, subdivision (ff).

§ 6. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 61 to read as follows:

61. One fair wage reimbursement credit. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in section fifty of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

(b) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year may not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this article. However, if the amount of the credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount or if the taxpayer otherwise pays tax based on the fixed dollar minimum amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such taxable year will be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon.

§ 7. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subdivision (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (lii) to read as follows:

(lii) One fair wage reimbursement credit under subsection (qqq)

Amount of credit under subdivision sixty-one of section two hundred ten-B

§ 8. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (qqq) to read as follows:

(qqq) One fair wage reimbursement credit. (1) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in section fifty of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

(2) Application of credit. If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year exceeds the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess will be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred

1 eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest will be
2 paid thereon.

3 § 9. Section 1511 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivi-
4 sion (ff) to read as follows:

5 (ff) One fair wage reimbursement credit. (1) Allowance of credit. A
6 taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in
7 section fifty of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

8 (2) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision
9 shall not reduce the tax due for such year to be less than the minimum
10 fixed by paragraph four of subdivision (a) of section fifteen hundred 11 two or section fifteen hundred two-a of this article, whichever is 12 applicable. However, if the amount of the credit allowed under this 13 subdivision for any taxable year reduces the taxpayer's tax to such 14 amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible will be treated as an 15 overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the 16 provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided,
17 however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eight-
18 y-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid ther-
19 eon.

20 § 10. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivi-
21 sion, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of 22 competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect,
23 impair, or invalidate the remainder of this act, but shall be confined
24 in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision,
25 section or part of this act directly involved in the controversy in 26 which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to 27 be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted
28 even if such invalid clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section
29 or part of this act had not been included herein.

30 § 11. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to taxa-
31 ble years beginning on and after January 1, 2026.
