AN ACT authorizing the town of Brookhaven to alienate certain parklands for use as a recharge basin and to dedicate other lands as replacement parklands

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subject to the provisions of this act, the town of Brookhaven, located in the county of Suffolk, acting by and through its governing body and upon such terms and conditions as determined by such body, is hereby authorized to discontinue as parklands the lands more particularly described in section three of this act, for the purposes of constructing a stormwater runoff and recharge basin.

§ 2. The authorization provided in section one of this act shall be effective only upon the condition that the town of Brookhaven dedicate an amount equal to or greater than the fair market value of the parklands being discontinued towards the acquisition of new parklands and/or capital improvements to existing park and recreational facilities.

§ 3. The parklands authorized by section one of this act to be discontinued as parklands are described as follows:
