affiliates, or controlled entities of such manufacturers; and [~~provided further~~]

(B) in the case of renewal, that a controlling interest in such original [~~franchisor, manufacturer, distributor, distributor branch or factory branch or any subsidiary, affiliate or controlled entity was not transferred, sold or conveyed to another person or entity, other than to a subsidiary, affiliate or controlled entity of such franchisor, manufacturer, distributor, distributor branch or factory branch~~] franchisors, manufacturers, distributors, distributor branches or factory branches or any subsidiaries, affiliates or controlled entities were not transferred, sold or conveyed to another person or entity, other than to a subsidiary, affiliate or controlled entity of such franchisors, manufacturers, distributors, distributor branches or factory branches.

(2) Prior to July first, two thousand twenty-six, the commissioner shall consider for renewal all certificates of registration issued under clause one of subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph. Any such certificates of registration issued prior to January first, two thousand twenty-five, shall not be eligible for renewal. The commissioner may issue up to five certificates of registration to entities defined under clause one of subparagraph (iii) of this paragraph, provided, however, that such entities have not previously been issued a certificate of registration prior to January first, two thousand twenty-five.

(3) For purposes of this paragraph, "zero emission vehicles" shall have the same meaning as under part two hundred eighteen of title six of the New York code of rules and regulations.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
