6. "Franchise," "franchisee," and "franchisor" shall have the same meanings as set forth in section six hundred eighty-one of the general business law.

§ 1012. Joint liability for fast food franchisors. 1. A fast food restaurant franchisor shall be responsible for ensuring that its franchisee complies with the following applicable employment, worker safety, public health and safety laws and orders and any rules or regulations related thereto:

(a) Article fifteen of the executive law.

(b) All applicable sections of this chapter.

(c) All applicable sections of the workers' compensation law.

(e) Orders issued by a county or municipality regarding employment standards or worker safety.

2. If a fast food restaurant franchisee is liable for a violation of any of the laws or orders set forth in subdivision one of this section, or any rules or regulations related thereto, the fast food restaurant franchisor shall be jointly and severally liable for any penalties or fines for such violation.

(b) There shall be a rebuttable presumption that any changes in the terms of a franchise that increase the costs of the franchise to the fast food restaurant franchisee create a substantial barrier to compliance with the laws and orders set forth in subdivision one of this section, and any rules and regulations relating thereto, or any changes to them.

6. If a fast food restaurant franchisee shows by a preponderance of the evidence that the terms of its franchise were a substantial factor in causing any liability the franchisee has actually incurred under

1 federal, state, or local law, the fast food restaurant franchisor shall
2 be jointly and severally liable for the portion of the liability to
3 which the terms of the franchise contributed.

4 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
