AN ACT to amend the penal law, in relation to increasing penalties for the crimes of larceny and fraud committed against an elderly person

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Legislative intent. This legislature finds that larceny and 2 fraud against seniors have increased steadily since 2020. According to 3 the FBI Internet Complaint Center's statistics, in 2023 elder fraud
4 complaints increased 14%. This legislature holds that crimes targeted 5 against the elderly take a wide variety of forms, from check fraud to 6 identity theft or through scams where individuals pose as tech support 7 or even as family members. This legislature further finds that according 8 to NASDAQ's 2024 Financial Crimes Report, one in ten elderly Americans 9 are victims of larceny or fraud each year, in total, $77.7 billion in 10 fraud globally has been linked to elderly victims.

11 This legislature also finds that New York seniors are at greater risk 12 of fraud. According to an FBI report, New York ranks fourth in the 13 nation for elder financial fraud losses, with more than 4,300 New York-
14 ers aged 60 and older losing a total of $203,437,635 in 2023. This loss 15 translates to $557,000 a day, or $23,200 an hour, and an average loss 16 per victim of $47,000.

17 Therefore, this legislature finds that to combat the increasing occur-18 rence of these crimes, and to treat them with the severity that they 19 deserve, larceny and fraud directed towards an elderly victim should 20 hereby be classified as a separate crime that is classified as Class B 21 felony.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
