Introduced by Sen. MAY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to the definition and term of real estate listing agreements

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section
2 442-m to read as follows:

3 § 442-m. Listing agreements. 1. For the purposes of this section, 4 "listing agreement" means a contract between an owner or owners of resi-
5 dential real property and an agent, by which the agent has been author-6 ized to sell or lease the residential real property or to find or obtain 7 a buyer or lessee therefor.

8 2. No real estate broker shall be a party to a listing agreement if 9 such agreement is for a period longer than two years.

10 3. A listing agreement shall not be enforceable if the agreement is 11 for a period longer than two years.

12 4. Nothing shall prohibit the renewal of a listing agreement upon or 13 prior to the fixed termination date set forth in such agreement,
14 provided, however, no real estate broker shall be a party to an exclu-15 sive listing agreement which shall contain an automatic continuation of 16 the period of such listing beyond the fixed termination date set forth 17 in such agreement.

18 § 2. This act shall take effect one year after it shall have become a 19 law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
