AN ACT relating to a waiver of earnings limitation for certain retirees of the New York state and local police and fire retirement system who are employed by the state university

  THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

 1   Section 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of general or special 2 law, local law and/or charter, the earnings limitations contained in any 3 such general or special law, local law and/or charter and applicable to 4 the employment of persons in a position or positions in public service
 5 in any calendar year while retired and receiving a retirement allowance 6 shall not apply to any person employed by the state university of New 7 York or by a community college under a program of the state university
 8 during the whole of any calendar year beginning with the calendar year
 9 in which this act shall have become a law who meets all of the following 10 requirements; such person may continue as retired and without loss, 11 suspension or diminution of his or her retirement allowance, provided:
12 (a) such person retired while a member of the New York state and local 13 police and fire retirement system; (b) such person is entitled to 14 receive a retirement allowance from such retirement system immediately 15 prior to the commencement date of such employment by the state universi-16 ty or community college under a program of the state university, as the 17 case may be, and (c) such retired person is granted a waiver of retire-18 ment earnings limitation by the chancellor of the state university of 19 New York or the president of a community college under a program of the 20 state university, if such person is hired as a member of the faculty, 21 chief of police or director of public safety, as the case may be.
22   S 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2011.
