Introduced by M. of A. ABBATE, BOYLAND -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to retirement benefits

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Subdivision b of section 604 of the retirement and social security law, as amended by chapter 266 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

b. The service retirement benefit at normal retirement age for a member with twenty years or more of credited service shall be a retirement allowance equal to one-fiftieth of final average salary times years of credited service [not in excess of thirty years.

Credited service in excess of thirty years shall provide an additional retirement allowance equal to three-two hundredths of the final average salary for each year of credited service in excess of thirty years].

S 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to be in full force and effect on and after June 30, 2009; provided that subdivision b of section 604 of the retirement and social security law amended by section one of this act shall expire on the same date as such section expires pursuant to section 615 of such law.

FISCAL NOTE.--Pursuant to Legislative Law, Section 50:

This bill would amend Article 15 of the Retirement and Social Security Law to provide that members who retire after the completion of more than thirty (30) years of service would receive an allowance based on two (2) percent of final average salary for each year of service. This bill shall be deemed in effect on and after June 30, 2009.

Insofar as this bill would affect the New York State and Local Employees' Retirement System, if it is enacted, we anticipate that there would be estimated additional annual costs of approximately $48 million to the
