LBD06933-01-9

f. "Income" means income received by the eligible head of the household combined with the income of all other members of the household from all sources after deduction of all income [and] TAXES, social security taxes and OUT-OF-POCKET EXPENSES FOR ALL MEDICAL AND PRESCRIPTION DRUGS NOT REIMBURSED OR PAID FOR BY INSURANCE AND includes without limitation, social security and retirement benefits, supplemental security income and additional state payments, public assistance benefits, interest, dividends, net rental income, salary and earnings, and net income from self employment, but shall not include gifts or inheritances, payments made to individuals because of their status as victims of Nazi persecution as defined in P.L. 103-286, nor increases in benefits accorded pursuant to the social security act or a public or private pension paid to any member of the household which increase, in any given year, does not exceed the consumer price index (all items United States city average) for such year which take effect after the eligibility date of an eligible head of the household receiving benefits hereunder whether received by the eligible head of the household or any other member of the household. When the eligible head of the household has retired on or after the commencement of the taxable period and prior to the date of making an application for a rent increase exemption order/tax abatement certificate pursuant to this section, such person's income shall be adjusted by excluding salary or earnings and projecting such person's retirement income over the entire taxable period.

S 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that the amendment to paragraph c of subdivision 1 of section 467-b of the real property tax law made by section one of this act shall expire on the same date as such section expires pursuant to section 17 of chapter 576 of the laws of 1974, as amended.
