AN ACT to create a fire protection and emergency response task force in rural areas

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. 1. There is hereby established a statewide fire protection and emergency response task force comprised of eight members who shall develop a plan focusing on the standards and training requirements necessary to effectuate fire protection and emergency response services in rural areas throughout the state of New York. Appointments to the task force shall be made as follows: two by the governor; two by the speaker of the assembly; two by the temporary president of the senate; one by the minority leader of the senate; and one by the minority leader of the assembly. The appointments of the governor shall be a member, officer or employee of the Fireman's Association of the State of New York.

2. The task force shall examine current regulations and establish a set of standards that are applicable only in rural areas as defined in this subdivision. These standards shall be aimed at being less burdensome for rural areas than the current regulations are and shall be designed to encourage citizens to volunteer their services. The task force shall issue a report within ten months after the effective date of this section and shall make recommendations to the legislature regarding any suggested changes in the law or to existing regulations. For purposes of this section, "rural areas" means counties within the state having a population of less than two hundred thousand, and the municipalities, individuals, institutions, communities, programs and such other entities or resources as are found therein. In counties with a
