S 2. Subdivision 3 of section 458 of the real property tax law, as amended by chapter 46 of the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

3. In addition to any exemption from taxation on real property which may be allowed to veterans pursuant to the provisions of subdivisions one and two of this section, the primary residence of any seriously disabled veteran who is eligible for pecuniary assistance from the United States government, or who has received pecuniary assistance from the United States government and has applied such assistance toward the acquisition or modification of a suitable housing unit with special fixtures or movable facilities made necessary by the nature of the veteran's disability, and the necessary land therefor, shall be fully exempt from taxation and special district charges and assessments and special ad valorem levies. The same exemption shall also be allowed on such a housing unit owned by the [unremarried] UNMARRIED surviving spouse of such veteran, or by such veteran and spouse while occupying such premises as a residence. The [unremarried] UNMARRIED surviving spouse of such veteran may transfer the exemption to any new housing unit to be used as his or her primary residence. Where property is owned by more than one qualified owner, the exemption to which each is entitled may be combined. Where a veteran is also the [unremarried] UNMARRIED surviving spouse of a veteran, such person may also receive any exemption to which the deceased spouse was entitled.

(d) "Qualifying residential real property" means property owned by a qualified owner which is used exclusively for residential purposes; provided however, that in the event any portion of such property is not so used exclusively for residential purposes but is used for other purposes, such portion shall be subject to taxation and the remaining portion only shall be entitled to the exemption provided by this section. Such property must be the primary residence of the veteran or [unremarried] UNMARRIED surviving spouse of the veteran, unless the veteran or [unremarried] UNMARRIED surviving spouse is absent from the property due to medical reasons or institutionalization. In the event the veteran dies and there is no [unremarried] UNMARRIED surviving spouse, "qualifying residential real property" shall mean the primary
