46 (B) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law to the contrary, 47 a city or county social services commissioner may withhold, in whole or 48 in part, the release of any information which he or she is authorized to 49 make available to persons or agencies identified in subparagraphs (a), 50 (k), (l), (m), (n)[,] AND (o)[, (p) and (q)] of paragraph (A) of this 53 such disclosure will be detrimental to the child named in the report.

54 (C) A city or county social services commissioner who denies access by 55 persons or agencies identified in subparagraphs (a), (k), (l), (m),

10 proceeding for review of such denial pursuant to article seventy-eight 11 of the civil practice law and rules.

13 subdivision 5 and subdivision 14 of section 422 of the social services
14 law, subparagraph (v) of paragraph (a) and paragraph (b) of subdivision 15 5 as amended, and paragraph (c) of subdivision 5 as added by chapter 555 16 of the laws of 2000 and subdivision 14 as added by chapter 477 of the 21 village police department or of a county sheriff's office when such 22 official verifies that the report is necessary to conduct an active 23 investigation or prosecution of a violation of subdivision [three] FOUR 24 of section [240.55] 240.50 of the penal law.

25 (b) Persons given access to unfounded reports pursuant to subparagraph 26 (v) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall not redisclose such 27 reports except as necessary to conduct such appropriate investigation or 28 prosecution and shall request of the court that any copies of such 29 reports produced in any court proceeding be redacted to remove the names 30 of the subjects and other persons named in the reports or that the court 31 issue an order protecting the names of the subjects and other persons 32 named in the reports from public disclosure. The local child protective 33 service or state agency shall not indicate the subsequent report solely 34 based upon the existence of the prior unfounded report or reports.
35 Notwithstanding section four hundred fifteen of this title, section one 36 thousand forty-six of the family court act, or, except as set forth 37 herein, any other provision of law to the contrary, an unfounded report 38 shall not be admissible in any judicial or administrative proceeding or

41 respondent in a proceeding under article ten of the family court act or 42 is a plaintiff or petitioner in a civil action or proceeding alleging 43 the false reporting of child abuse or maltreatment; or (ii) in a crimi-

47 report. Whenever the office of children and family services determines 48 that there is some credible evidence of abuse or maltreatment as a 49 result of an investigation of a report conducted pursuant to subdivision
50 (c) of section 45.07 of the mental hygiene law, the office of children 51 and family services shall notify the commission on quality of care for 52 the mentally disabled.

53 (c) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the office of children
54 and family services may, in its discretion, grant a request to expunge 55 an unfounded report where: (i) the source of the report was convicted of 56 a violation of subdivision [three] FOUR of section [240.55] 240.50 of

1 the penal law in regard to such report; or (ii) the subject of the 2 report presents clear and convincing evidence that affirmatively refutes 3 the allegation of abuse or maltreatment; provided however, that the 4 absence of credible evidence supporting the allegation of abuse or 5 maltreatment shall not be the sole basis to expunge the report. Nothing 6 in this paragraph shall require the office of children and family 7 services to hold an administrative hearing in deciding whether to 8 expunge a report. Such office shall make its determination upon review-9 ing the written evidence submitted by the subject of the report and any 10 records or information obtained from the state or local agency which 11 investigated the allegations of abuse or maltreatment.

12 14. The department shall refer suspected cases of falsely reporting

22 S 8. Subdivision 12 of section 422 of the social services law, as 23 added by chapter 1039 of the laws of 1973 and renumbered by chapter 676
24 of the laws of 1985, is amended to read as follows:
