AN ACT authorizing the town of Brookhaven, Suffolk county to establish a special medical district and to appropriate, collect and expend monies in furtherance thereof

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Pursuant to article 12 or 12-A of the town law, the town board of the town of Brookhaven, Suffolk county, may establish a special medical district in the unincorporated Fire Island Pines area of the town of Brookhaven, Suffolk county to contract for emergency medical services, provide lease housing for emergency medical technicians and for the purchase of necessary medical equipment. In addition this district shall provide for financial support of other medical services such as Lyme Disease prevention, vector control, and operating budget support for an already existing physician's office and disability cart serving residents of such area.

S 2. In furtherance of such purposes, the town board is hereby authorized to appropriate, collect and expend such sums as it shall deem necessary and appropriate to reconstruct, repair, operate, equip and maintain suitable buildings therefor and to acquire by purchase, lease, or gift any necessary real property or structures therefor.

S 3. The costs and expenses approved pursuant to this act shall be assessed, levied and collected from the several lots and parcels of land within the unincorporated Fire Island Pines area of the town of Brookhaven, Suffolk county.

S 4. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [ ] is old law to be omitted.
