Section 1. Legislative findings. The 9 10 legislature further finds that the patrolmen of the housing company's Co-op City public safety department perform what are essentially munici-11 12 pal police functions at little or no cost to the taxpayers of this state because the salaries and law enforcement activities of the housing 13 company's Co-op City public safety department, which activities supple-14 15 ment and often take the place of those of the police department of the 16 of New York, are paid for out of the monthly housing maintenance city 17 payments of the residents of Co-op City, rather than from municipal It is clear that without the Co-op City public safety depart-18 coffers. ment's patrolmen the city of New York and the taxpayers of the city and 19 state would necessarily have to shoulder the sole burden of law enforce-20 21 ment for Co-op City.

Accordingly, the legislature finds and declares that the unique situation and special conditions present with respect to the area and commu-
