ing evidence that his or her risk of repeat offense and threat to public safety is such that registration or verification is no longer necessary. Such petition, if granted, shall not relieve the petitioner of the duty to register pursuant to this article upon conviction of any offense requiring registration in the future. Such a petition shall not be considered more than once every two years. In the event that the sex offender's petition for relief is granted, the district attorney may appeal as of right from the order pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-seven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been assigned to represent the sex offender upon the ground that the sex offender is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall be continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may appeal as a poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law.

- 2.] Any sex offender required to register or verify pursuant to this article may petition the sentencing court or the court which made the determination regarding the level of notification for an order modifying level of notification. The petition shall set forth the level of notification sought, together with the reasons for seeking such determination. The sex offender shall bear the burden of proving the facts supporting the requested modification by clear and convincing evidence. Such a petition shall not be considered more than annually. In the event that the sex offender's petition to modify the level of notification is the district attorney may appeal as of right from the order pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fiftyseven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been assigned to represent the sex offender upon the ground that the sex offender is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall be continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person appeal as a poor person pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law.
- [3.] 2. The district attorney may file a petition to modify the level of notification for a sex offender with the sentencing court or with the which made the determination regarding the level of notification OR WITH ANY COURT IN WHICH THE SEX OFFENDER HAS BEEN CONVICTED OF A NEW CRIME, where the sex offender (a) has been convicted of a new crime, or there has been a determination after a proceeding pursuant to section 410.70 of the criminal procedure law or section two hundred fifty-nine-i the executive law that the sex offender has violated one or more conditions imposed as part of a sentence of a conditional probation, parole or post-release supervision for a designated crime, and (b) the conduct underlying the new crime or the violation is of a nature that indicates an increased risk of a repeat sex offense. The petition shall set forth the level of notification sought, together with the reasons for seeking such determination. The district attorney shall bear the burden of proving the facts supporting the requested modification, by clear and convincing evidence. In the event that the district attorney's petition is granted, the sex offender may appeal as of right from the order, pursuant to the provisions of articles fifty-five, fifty-six and fifty-seven of the civil practice law and rules. Where counsel has been assigned to represent the offender upon the ground that he or she is financially unable to retain counsel, that assignment shall be continued throughout the pendency of the appeal, and the person may proceed as a poor person, pursuant to article eighteen-B of the county law.

[4.] 3. Upon receipt of a petition submitted pursuant to subdivision 2 one[,] OR two [or three] of this section, the court shall forward a copy 3 the petition to the board and request an updated recommendation pertaining to the sex offender and shall provide a copy of the petition 5 the other party. The court shall also advise the sex offender that 6 he or she has the right to be represented by counsel at the hearing 7 counsel will be appointed if he or she is financially unable to retain 8 counsel. A returnable form shall be enclosed in the court's notice to 9 sex offender on which the sex offender may apply for assignment of 10 counsel. If the sex offender applies for assignment of counsel and the 11 finds that the offender is financially unable to retain counsel, the court shall assign counsel to represent the offender, pursuant to 12 article eighteen-B of the county law. Where the petition was filed by a 13 14 district attorney, at least thirty days prior to making an 15 recommendation the board shall notify the sex offender and his or her counsel that the offender's case is under review and he or she is 16 permitted to submit to the board any information relevant to the review. 17 board's updated recommendation on the sex offender shall be confi-18 19 dential and shall not be available for public inspection. After receiv-20 ing an updated recommendation from the board concerning a sex offender, 21 the court shall, at least thirty days prior to ruling upon the petition, 22 provide a copy of the updated recommendation to the sex offender, 23 sex offender's counsel and the district attorney and notify them, in writing, of the date set by the court for a hearing on the petition. 24 25 After reviewing the recommendation received from the board and any rele-26 vant materials and evidence submitted by the sex offender and the 27 district attorney, the court may grant or deny the petition. The court 28 may also consult with the victim prior to making a determination on the 29 petition. The court shall render an order setting forth its determination, and the findings of fact and conclusions of law on which the 30 determination is based. If the petition is granted, it shall be the 31 32 obligation of the court to submit a copy of its order to the division. 33 Upon application of either party, the court shall seal any portion of the court file or record which contains material that is confidential 34 35 under any state or federal statute. 36

S 4. This act shall take effect immediately, and shall apply to sex offenders required to be registered immediately prior to such effective date and to all sex offenders required to be registered on or after such effective date.
