9 [(f)] (D) Itemized verdict in certain actions. In an action brought to 10 recover damages for personal injury, injury to property or wrongful 11 death, [which is not subject to subdivisions (d) and (e) of this rule,] 12 the court shall instruct the jury that if the jury finds a verdict
13 awarding damages, it shall in its verdict specify the applicable 14 elements of special and general damages upon which the award is based 15 and the amount assigned to each element including, but not limited to,
16 medical expenses, dental expenses, loss of earnings, impairment of earning ability, and pain and suffering. Each element shall be further itemized into amounts intended to compensate for damages that have been 17 incurred prior to the verdict and amounts intended to compensate for 18 damages to be incurred in the future. In itemizing amounts intended to

1 compensate for future damages, the jury shall set forth the period of 2 years over which such amounts are intended to provide compensation. In 3 actions in which article fifty-A or fifty-B of this chapter applies, in 4 computing said damages, the jury shall be instructed to award the full 5 amount of future damages, as calculated, without reduction to present 6 value.

7 S 4. Subdivision (b) of section 4213 of the civil practice law and 8 rules, as separately amended by chapters 485 and 682 of the laws of 9 1986, is amended to read as follows:

10 (b) Form of decision. The decision of the court may be oral or in 11 writing and shall state the facts it deems essential. In [a medical, 12 dental or podiatric malpractice action or in an action against a public 13 employer or a public employee who is subject to indemnification by a 14 public employer with respect to such action or both, as such terms are 15 defined in subdivision (b) of section forty-five hundred forty-five, for 16 personal injury or wrongful death arising out of an injury sustained by 17 a public employee while acting within the scope of his public employment 18 or duties, and in] any [other] action brought to recover damages for 19 personal injury, injury to property, or wrongful death, a decision 20 awarding damages shall specify the applicable elements of special and 21 general damages upon which the award is based and the amount assigned to 22 each element, including but not limited to medical expenses, dental 23 expenses, podiatric expenses, loss of earnings, impairment of earning 24 ability, and pain and suffering. In [a medical, dental or podiatric
25 malpractice action, and in] any [other] SUCH action [brought to recover 26 damages for personal injury, injury to property, or wrongful death], 27 each element shall be further itemized into amounts intended to compen-28 sate for damages which have been incurred prior to the decision and 29 amounts intended to compensate for damages to be incurred in the future.
30 In itemizing amounts intended to compensate for future damages, the 31 court shall set forth the period of years over which such amounts are 32 intended to provide compensation. In computing said damages, the court 33 shall award the full amount of future damages, as calculated, without 34 reduction to present value.

35 S 5. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all 36 actions and proceedings pending or commenced on or after such date.
