AN ACT to amend the elder law, in relation to state aid for certain non-medical services to the elderly

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (j) of subdivision 4 of section 214 of the elder 2 law is amended to read as follows:
3 (j) Within the amounts appropriated therefor, counties authorized to 4 provide expanded non-medical in-home services, non-institutional respite 5 services, case management services, and ancillary services pursuant to 6 paragraph (i) of this subdivision shall be eligible for reimbursement by 7 the state of up to seventy-five percent of allowable expenditures for 8 approved services pursuant to this section up to the level authorized by 9 the director. The director shall not authorize a level of state
10 reimbursement pursuant to this paragraph which exceeds the sum of nine-11 ty-one thousand two hundred fifty dollars or seven dollars thirty cents 12 for each elderly person residing in the county, whichever is greater,
13 and shall proportionately reduce such sum for each county in any years
14 for which appropriations are not sufficient to fully fund approved
15 expanded non-medical in-home services, non-institutional respite
16 services, case management services, and ancillary services for func-
17 tionally impaired elderly in all counties with approved home care plans; 18 provided however that in state fiscal years beginning on or after the 19 first day of April, two thousand five, the director, with the approval
20 of the director of the budget, may authorize state reimbursement ON A 21 PROPORTIONAL BASIS in excess of these levels to the extent appropri-
22 ations are available therefor. THE LEVEL OF STATE REIMBURSEMENT PURSU-
23 ANT TO THIS PARAGRAPH WHICH THE DIRECTOR OF THE BUDGET MAY AUTHORIZE

EXPLANATION--Matter in ITALICS (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [] is old law to be omitted.
