AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the duties of the state police

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 1 of section 223 of the executive law, as 2 amended by chapter 428 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 1. It shall be the duty of the superintendent of the state police and 5 of members of the state police to prevent and detect crime and apprehend 6 criminals. They shall also be subject to the call of the governor and 7 are empowered to [co-operate] COOPERATE with any other department of the 8 state or with local authorities. They shall have power to arrest, with-9 out a warrant, any person committing or attempting to commit within 10 their presence or view a breach of the peace or other violation of law, 11 to serve and execute warrants of arrest or search issued by proper 12 authority and to exercise all other powers of police officers of the 13 state of New York[. Any such warrants issued by any magistrate of the 14 state may be executed by them in any part of the state according to the 15 tenor thereof without indorsement. But], BUT they shall not exercise 16 their powers within the limits of any city to suppress rioting and 17 disorder except by direction of the governor or upon the request of the 18 mayor of the city with the approval of the governor. Any member of the 19 rank of sergeant or above may take pre-arraignment bail from any defend-20 ant in the amounts and under the circumstances and conditions that 21 police may take bail.
