nities are limited or where new construction would prove to be more that the carrying out of such projects serves a significant public purpose and may appropriately be performed by eligible applicants; that payment for such services, tax exemptions and other public 5 participation in such projects would bring down the cost of such housing 6 and make it affordable to persons of low income; and that it 7 policy of the state to preserve and create such housing and to provide 8 for the aid, care, and support of the needy. The legislature therefore 9 finds that a program should be established to provide monies for the 10 rehabilitation and construction of these properties by eligible applicants to promote the preservation and creation of affordable housing for 11 12 persons of low income.

It is intended that any payments, grants or loans provided to municipalities through this program not substitute for funds which such municipalities would have spent in the absence of this program and that such payments, grants and loans will enable such municipalities to expand their commitment to increase the supply of affordable low income housing to levels greater than would have been possible without this program.

- S 2. Subdivision 12 of section 1101 of the private housing finance law, as amended by chapter 121 of the laws of 1988, is amended to read as follows:
- 12. "Project" shall mean a MODERATE REHABILITATION, cooperative, condominium, homesteading or rental project. In cases where any such project consists of less than the total number of units or the total amount of floor space of a property, any reference in this article, to a "project", "MODERATE REHABILITATION PROJECT", "cooperative project", "condominium project", "rental project" or "homesteading project" shall mean that portion of such property which makes up such project.
- 29 S 3. Section 1101 of the private housing finance law is amended by 30 adding a new subdivision 14 to read as follows:
- 14. "MODERATE REHABILITATION PROJECT" SHALL MEAN ANY OCCUPIED RESIDENTIAL PROPERTY OR ANY PORTION THEREOF WHICH, IF VACANT OR UNDEROCCUPIED, WOULD QUALIFY AS A COOPERATIVE PROJECT, CONDOMINIUM PROJECT, HOMESTEADING PROJECT OR RENTAL PROJECT.
 - S 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
