(21) the county of Columbia is hereby further authorized and empowered to adopt and amend local laws, ordinances or resolutions imposing such taxes at a rate which is one percent additional to the three percent rate authorized above in this paragraph for such county for the period beginning March first, nineteen hundred ninety-five, and ending November thirtieth, two thousand [nine] ELEVEN;

2. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, if the county of Columbia imposes the additional one percent rate of sales and compensating use taxes authorized by the opening paragraph of section 1210 of the tax law, as extended by section one of this act, for portion of the period during which such county is so authorized to impose such additional one percent rate of such taxes, then the county Columbia shall allocate and distribute quarterly to the city of Hudson and the area in such county outside such city the same proportion of net collections attributable to such additional one percent rate of such taxes as such county was allocating and distributing the net collections from such county's three percent rate of such taxes on January 28, 1995, and such portion of net collections attributable to such additional one percent rate of such taxes shall be allocated and distributed to the towns and villages in such county in the same manner the net collections attributable to such county's three percent rate of such taxes were allocated and distributed to such towns and villages on January 28, 1995. In the event that the city of Hudson exercises its prior right to impose a tax pursuant to section 1224 of the tax law, then the county of Columbia shall not be required to allocate and distribute net collections in accordance with this section for any period of time during which any such city tax is in effect.

S 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
