AN ACT to provide for the submission to the people of a proposition or question to convene a constitutional convention

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Pursuant to the provisions of section 2 of article XIX of 2     the New York state constitution, the question "Shall there be a conven-3     tion to revise the constitution and amend the same for the sole and 4     limited purposes of providing for a process of choosing a lieutenant 5     governor in the event of a vacancy in such office and for achieving real 6     property tax law reform?" shall be submitted to and decided by the 7     people of the state at the general election to be held in the next 8     succeeding November after the effective date of this act.
9     S 2. If the question stated in section one of this act is answered in 10    the affirmative by a majority of all votes cast for and against it, 11    decided in favor of a convention for such purpose, the procedures and 12    provisions of section 2 of article XIX of the constitution shall apply 13    and be implemented, except that such convention shall only consider and 14    submit amendments to the constitution for the sole and limited purposes 15    of providing for a process of choosing a lieutenant governor in the 16    event of a vacancy in such office and for achieving real property tax 17    law reform.
18    S 3. This act shall take effect immediately; provided that the 19    provisions of section two of this act shall not take effect unless and 20    until the question proposed in section one of this act shall have been 21    submitted to the people at the general election to be held in the next 22    succeeding November after the effective date of this act, and shall have 23    received a majority of all votes cast for and against it at such 24    election.     Upon approval by the people, section two of this act shall 25    take effect immediately. The ballots to be furnished for the use of the
