ALL STATE DEPARTMENTS AND AGENCIES

For the purpose of making payments for personal service, including liabilities incurred prior to April 1, 2010, on the payrolls scheduled to be paid during the period April 1 through May [20] 26, 2010 to state officers and employees of the executive branch, including the governor, lieutenant governor, comptroller and attorney general; to officers and employees of the judiciary; and to officers and employees of the legislature, including payments to the members of the senate and assembly under sections 5 and 5-a of the legislative law; and payments for services performed by mentally ill or developmentally disabled persons who are employed in state-operated special employment, work-for-pay or sheltered workshop programs[; consistent with section 8 of part A of chapter 10 of the laws of 2008, section 3 of chapter 114 of the laws of 2008 and section 4 of chapter 49 of the laws of 2008, and notwithstanding any contrary provision of law, including provisions of article 14 of the civil service law or collective bargaining agreement entered into by the state pursuant thereto, the amounts to be paid to state officers and employees of the executive branch for personal service shall not be based on amounts applicable pursuant to subparagraph (4) of paragraph a of subdivision 1, subparagraph (4) of paragraph c of subdivision 1, or subparagraph (4) of paragraph e of subdivision 1 of section 130 of the civil service law; or subparagraph (4) of paragraph a of subdivision 2, or subparagraph (8) of paragraph a of subdivision 2 of section 215 of the executive law; or subparagraph (4) of paragraph a of subdivision 2 of section 216 of the executive law, insofar as such subparagraphs provide for a general salary increase of four percent. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including article 14 of the civil service law, collective bargaining agreement or other analogous contract or binding interest arbitration award, the work week of officers and employees in the executive branch, including temporary and seasonal employees and employees of the city university of New York as defined in subdivision 2 of section 6202 of the education law, shall be reduced by one-fifth during the week commencing May 17, 2010 and ending on May 23, 2010 as provided herein. Appointing authorities shall ensure that every employee and every officer is scheduled for such work week reduction, except those employees who serve in a position that has been designated as managerial or confidential pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law, those employees whose position is one hundred percent funded by the federal government, or those employees designated by the appointing authority as within a title and position that is responsible for providing direct care or is engaged in functions necessary for the preservation of health or safety. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, including section 200 of the state finance law, the wages and salaries paid to employees whose work week was reduced shall be reduced by the same percentage reduction that was made to the employee's work schedule during the relevant payroll period, and in no event shall an officer or employee whose work week is reduced be permitted to offset any reduction in payment through the utilization of any accrued leave credits. Notwithstanding section 6221 of the education law or any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, aid payable to New York city for pre-financing the net operating costs of the senior colleges of the city university for the period July 1, 2009 through June 30, 2010 shall be reduced by an amount equal to the savings in wages and salaries attributable to the reduction in work week during the week commencing May 17, 2010. New York city is authorized and directed to withhold payment to the city university in an amount equal to the savings attributable to the wages and salaries of those employees whose work week was reduced. The reduction in work week provided herein shall not apply to employees who are subject to an agreement negotiated pursuant to article 14 of the civil service law after the effective date of this act that provides for comparable personal service savings] ..... S 14. No expenditure may be made from any appropriation in this act, until a certificate of approval has been issued by the director of the budget and a copy of such certificate shall have been filed with the state comptroller, the chairman of the senate finance committee and the chairman of the assembly ways and means committee provided, however, that any expenditures from any appropriation in this act made by the legislature or judiciary shall not require such certificate.

S 15. All expenditures and disbursements made against the appropriations in this act shall, upon final action by the legislature on appropriation bills submitted by the governor pursuant to article VII of the state constitution for the support of government for the state fiscal year beginning April 1, 2010, be transferred by the comptroller as expenditures and disbursements to such appropriations for all state departments, agencies, the legislature and the judiciary, as applicable, in amounts equal to the amounts charged against the appropriations in this act for each such department, agency, the legislature and the judiciary.

S 16. Severability clause. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.

S 17. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after April 1, 2010; provided, however, that upon the transfer of expenditures and disbursements by the comptroller as provided in section fifteen of this act, the appropriations made by this act and subject to such section shall be deemed repealed, provided, however, that the amendments made by section two of this act shall apply to the payroll periods for which payment is made on May 26, 2010.
