Introduced by Sen. DILAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Housing, Construction and Community Development

AN ACT to amend the private housing finance law, in relation to the aggregate annual income of low income persons or families eligible for accommodations in a company project

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1     Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 2 of section 31 of the private 2     housing finance law, as amended by chapter 260 of the laws of 1996, is 3     amended to read as follows:
4     (a) The dwelling or non-housekeeping accommodations without board in a 5     company project shall be available for persons or families of low income 6     whose probable aggregate annual income at the time of admission and 7     during the period of occupancy does not exceed, the greater of (i) the 8     median income for such persons or families for the metropolitan statis-9     tical area in which the project is located, or if a project is located 10    outside a metropolitan statistical area, the median income for such 11    persons or families for the county in which the project is located, as 12    most recently determined by the United States department of housing and 13    urban development, in which case any person or family becoming eligible 14    for admission pursuant to this subparagraph shall pay, from the time of 15    admission, a rental surcharge as provided for in subdivision three of 16    this section, computed on the basis of the income limitations applicable 17    to such persons or families in the absence of this subparagraph, or (ii) 18    [seven] EIGHT times the rental, including the value or cost to them of 19    heat, light, water and cooking fuel, of the dwellings that may be 20    furnished to such persons or families, except that in the case of fami-
21    lies with three or more dependents, such ratio shall not exceed [eight] 22    NINE to one. The "probable aggregate annual income" in the case of 23    dwelling accommodations means the annual income of the chief wage earner 24    of the family, plus all other income of other members of the family over 25    the age of twenty-one years, plus a proportion of income of gainfully 26    employed members under the age of twenty-one years, the proportion to be

1 determined by the company as approved by the commissioner or the super-2 vising agency, as the case may be, excluding therefrom a deduction of 3 fifteen thousand dollars from the income of secondary wage earners of 4 the family or a larger deduction if approved by the commissioner or the 5 supervising agency, as the case may be, except that the company, as 6 approved by the commissioner or the supervising agency, as the case may 7 be, may exclude a proportion of the income of other members of the fami-8 ly over the age of twenty-one years for the purpose of determining 9 eligibility for admission or continued occupancy, or for establishing 10 the rental of such family, or for all such purposes; in the case of such 11 non-housekeeping accommodations it means the annual income of the occu-
12 pant, provided that the commissioner or supervising agency, as the case 13 may be, may make rules and regulations relative to the allocation of the 14 income of a family among the members thereof for the purpose of deter-15 mining the income attributable to such occupant.

16 S 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 17 have become a law.
