THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Legislative findings and declaration of intent. The legis-
2 lature finds that important rights may be surrendered by contracts made 3 between persons in contemplation of marriage and declares that public

5 without a period of time during which the parties may contemplate the 6 consequences of their intended agreement, consult an attorney for 7 advice, if necessary, and withdraw unilaterally if that be the determi-
8 nation upon reflection. Such waivers of important rights should be 9 entered into knowingly and consciously. Moreover, all such agreements 10 should be in writing, subscribed by both parties, and acknowledged or 11 proven pursuant to requisite formalities, to reflect the importance of 12 the undertaking. Accordingly, the legislature declares this act to 13 reflect the public policy of this state and to be necessary in the 14 public interest.
