33 S 7. A. Every bill which shall have passed the senate and assembly

35 governor approve, he or she shall sign it; but if not, he or she shall 36 return it with his or her objections to the house in which it shall have 37 originated, which shall enter the objections at large on the journal, 38 and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration, two-thirds 39 of the members elected to that house shall agree to pass the bill, it 40 shall be sent together with the objections, to the other house, by which 41 it shall likewise be reconsidered; and if approved by two-thirds of the 42 members elected to that house, it shall become a law notwithstanding the 43 objections of the governor. In all such cases the votes in both houses 44 shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the members 45 voting shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If 46 any bill shall not be returned by the governor within ten days (Sundays

55 items while approving of the other portion of the bill. In such case the 56 governor shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it, a state-

2 objected to shall not take effect. If the legislature be in session, he 3 or she shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated a copy 4 of such statement, and the items objected to shall be separately recon-5 sidered. If on reconsideration one or more of such items be approved by 6 two-thirds of the members elected to each house, the same shall be part 7 of the law, notwithstanding the objections of the governor. All the 8 provisions of this section, in relation to bills not approved by the
