Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Abbate) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the public officers law, in relation to the residence of peace officers employed as fire protection inspectors, urban park rangers and traffic enforcement agents level IV by a city with a population over one million

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEM-BLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Section 3-b of the public officers law, as amended by chap-
2 ter 448 of the laws of 1992, is amended to read as follows:
3 S 3-b. Special peace officers to be citizens. 1. No sheriff of a coun-4 ty, mayor of a city, or official, or other persons authorized by law to 5 appoint special deputy sheriffs, special constables, marshals, police 6 officers, or peace officers in this state, to preserve the public peace 7 or quell public disturbance, shall hereafter, at the instance of any 8 agent, society, association or corporation, or otherwise, appoint as 9 such special deputy, special constable, marshal, police officer, or 10 peace officer, any person who shall not be a citizen of the United 11 States and a resident of the state of New York, and entitled to vote 12 therein at the time of his appointment, and a resident of the same coun-13 ty as the mayor or sheriff or other official making such appointment;
14 provided, however, that when, in the judgment of a sheriff of a county
15 except those counties within the city of New York a situation exists 16 which requires temporary additional assistance, such sheriff may appoint 17 special deputy sheriffs who are non-residents of the county but resi-18 dents of the state of New York who shall hold office until such time as 19 the appointing sheriff determines that the situation no longer exists; 20 and no person shall assume or exercise the functions, powers, duties or 21 privileges incident and belonging to the office of special deputy sher-22 iff, special constables, marshal, police officer, or peace officer, 23 without having first received his appointment in writing from the 24 authority lawfully appointing him. Nothing herein contained, however, 25 shall apply to the appointment of a non-resident, as an emergency 26 special deputy sheriff, by the sheriff of any county to act when such
