THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. This act enacts into law major components of legislation
2 which are necessary to implement the state fiscal plan for the 2009-2010
3 state fiscal year. Each component is wholly contained within a Part
4 identified as Parts A through H. The effective date for each particular 5 provision contained within such Part is set forth in the last section of 6 such Part. Any provision in any section contained within a Part, includ-
7 ing the effective date of the Part, which makes a reference to a section 8 "of this act", when used in connection with that particular component, 9 shall be deemed to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the 10 Part in which it is found. Section three of this act sets forth the 11 general effective date of this act.

12 PART A

13 Section 1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other law to the 14 contrary, there is hereby established an accounts receivable discount
15 program as described in this section, to be administered by the commis-
16 sioner of taxation and finance, and to be effective for the period
17 prescribed by such commissioner, for all eligible taxpayers as described 18 in this section owing any tax, fee, or surcharge imposed or formerly 19 imposed by, or authorized under, the tax law, and administered by the 20 commissioner of taxation and finance.

21 (b) For purposes of the accounts receivable discount program, an 22 eligible taxpayer is an individual, partnership, estate, trust, corpo-23 ration, limited liability company, joint stock company, or any other 24 company, trustee, receiver, assignee, referee, society, association, 25 business or any other person as described in the tax law, who or which 26 has a tax liability with regard to one or more taxes, fees or surcharges
27 that meet the conditions described in this section. However, a taxpayer 28 who or that has been convicted of crime under the tax law or the penal 29 law, and who or that is subject to a court order to pay a tax liability 30 as a result of that conviction, is not eligible to participate in this 31 program.

32 (c) For purposes of the accounts receivable discount program, an 33 eligible tax liability is one that has become fixed and final, and for 34 which an assessment or final determination was issued on or before 35 December 31, 2006. An eligible tax liability shall not include an 36 assessment or final determination that includes any of the following:
37 (1) any fraud penalty imposed under the tax law; (2) a penalty imposed
38 under section 11 of part N of chapter 61 of the laws of 2005; (3) a
39 penalty imposed under subsection (e), (g), (p), (p-1), (r), (x), (y),
40 (z), (aa) or (bb) of section 685 of the tax law; or (4) a penalty
41 imposed under subsection (f), (k), (k-1), (l), (p), (q), (r), (s) or (t)
42 of section 1085 of the tax law.

43 (d) The amount due under the accounts receivable discount program for 44 an eligible tax liability for which an assessment or final determination
45 was issued after December 31, 2003 and on or before December 31, 2006 46 must include the underlying tax liability and fifty percent of the 47 accrued interest and penalty (including the additional rate of interest 48 prescribed under section 1145 of the tax law, referred to in this 49 section as "interest penalty"). The amount due under this program for an 50 eligible tax liability for which an assessment or final determination
51 was issued on or before December 31, 2003 must include the underlying

1 tax liability and twenty percent of the accrued interest and penalty
2 (including interest penalty).

3 (e) The commissioner of taxation and finance shall identify the 4 assessments and final determinations with tax liabilities eligible for 5 the accounts receivable discount program described in this section, 6 compute the total amount of tax, interest, and penalty due under the 7 accounts receivable discount program on each such assessment or final 8 determination, and notify eligible taxpayers of the amount due under 9 this program for each such assessment or final determination. The 10 discount of a percentage of interest and penalty described in this 11 section will not be granted to any taxpayer for any such assessment or 12 final determination unless the taxpayer pays in full the amount due 13 under this program for that assessment or final determination on or 14 before the date prescribed by the commissioner.

15 (f) Under the accounts receivable discount program, payment will be 16 made by eligible taxpayers with eligible tax liabilities in the form and 17 manner prescribed by the commissioner of taxation and finance. Upon 18 payment in full by the date prescribed by the commissioner of taxation
19 and finance of the amount due under the accounts receivable discount 20 program for an eligible tax liability, the taxpayer's liability for that 21 assessment or final determination will be deemed to be paid in full.
22 Failure to pay the full amount due under this program by the date
23 prescribed by the commissioner of taxation and finance will disqualify 24 an eligible tax liability from receiving the discount of interest and 25 penalty described in this section.

26 (g) No refund will be granted or credit allowed with respect to any 27 penalty or interest paid prior to the time the taxpayer participates in 28 the accounts receivable discount program.

29 (h) No refund will be granted or credit allowed with respect to any 30 tax liability, including any applicable interest or penalty, paid under 31 the accounts receivable discount program.

32 (i) If an eligible taxpayer has entered into an installment payment 33 agreement that applies to an eligible tax liability, the taxpayer may 34 participate in the accounts receivable discount program with respect to 35 that liability, if the taxpayer pays the amount due under the accounts 36 receivable discount program in full by the date prescribed by the 37 commissioner of taxation and finance.

38 S 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

10 FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO BE BORNE AT THE LOCAL LEVEL, UNLESS THE STATUTE OR

54 mean the period from July first of the preceding year to June thirtieth 55 of the calendar year referenced.

1 Funds shall be apportioned to each school district in an amount equal 2 to the supplemental deficit reduction assessment computed pursuant to 3 subparagraph 3 of paragraph d of subdivision 1 of section 3609-a of the
